PREAMBLE

INSPIRED by the struggles of the Sudanese Peoples through periods of history against totalitarian and dictatorial regimes;

SEEKING to fulfill the longings and aspirations of our peoples to end the wars and conflicts and achieve a just, comprehensive, and sustainable peace, that establishes a state based on equal citizenship without discrimination, and brings justice to millions of Sudanese from displaced persons, refugees and the dispossessed who were forcibly displaced by the former regime, who against them committed war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide;

MINDFUL that the first priority of this stage is to end wars, rectify injustices, and renounce hostilities to achieve sustainable peace;

CONFIRMING social, political, and economic justice in a democratic and developmental state in which the rights of all peoples are considered, and equality for women, children, the marginalized, and those with special needs is realized;

RECOGNIZING that the December 2018 Revolution is a cumulative one, sparked and carried out by all the regions and the full spectrum of the Sudanese people, that provides a historic opportunity to build a democratic, developmental state inclusive of all its citizens and a threshold to overcome the nation's crises that have eluded a solution since independence;

AFFIRMING that the armed struggle forces remained an original and active component in the foundation, achievement, and victory of the Revolution's forces.

IN LOYALTY and gratitude to the martyrs of the cumulative Sudanese Revolution, who have sacrificed their souls to the nation, the wounded, and the missing who paved the path to freedom, justice, peace, and development.

RESPONDING to the role uniquely played by women in leading the Revolution and their great presence in protests, processions, sit-ins, and in armed struggle areas with determination, boldness, and selflessness adding to the Sudanese women's fight for equal rights;

RESPONSIVE to the Sudanese youth and active resistance forces across the expanse of the nation who sparked the Revolution offering martyrs and sacrificing for change and the foundations of a popular democratic movement, coupled with a Sudanese peace movement, to guarantee the sustainability of peace, development, and stability;

BELIEVING in the unity of the Sudanese soil, national sovereignty, democracy, political pluralism, and a state of institutions and the rule of law that respects diversity stands at an equal distance from all religions and cultures, and is based on citizenship without discrimination, rights and duties and elevates the values of justice, equality, and human rights.

CONTRIBUTING to reform the state's institutions and public service, including the military institution; enforcing the measures of transitional justice, restoration of rights, and reparations; rebuilding trust and the peaceful management of disputes; nationalizing the foundations of societal peace; and deepening the values of forgiveness and reconciliation between the local societal components and all the peoples of Sudan;

RECOGNIZING the role of citizens in the traditional, agricultural, and pastoral sectors in developing the overall economy;

ACKNOWLEDGING the right of all components of the Sudanese peoples without discrimination in the enjoyment of wealth and their just participation in sharing the wealth of the nation and in administering their own affairs and public Sudanese affairs;

CONVINCED that the history of Sudan affirms that there is no military solution to conflicts in Sudan due to their political nature, and that there is no means to achieving peace in Sudan except through political means that speak to and address the root causes and consequences of war;

DETERMINED to achieve a just, comprehensive, and durable peace for Sudan that addresses that meets the aspirations of the Revolution to bring freedom, peace, and justice to all Sudanese people and genuine reform to end decades of marginalization, discrimination and developmental imbalance;

APPRECIATING the efforts of the people and government of the Republic of South Sudan and their esteemed role in mediating and facilitating the Sudanese peace discussions as well as the central role of His Excellency President Salva Kiir Mayardit and the Mediation team in achieving this Agreement;

GRATEFUL FOR the valued contributions of the regional and international community including UNAMID, the United Nations, the African Union, the Troika countries, the European Union, the League of Arab States, the Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD), and neighboring countries.

TAKING NOTE of all the Security Council, African Union, and African Peace and Security Council relevant resolutions;

APPRECIATING the role of the Juba Declaration and other agreements in organizing the negotiations and the confidence-building measures between the Transitional Government of Sudan and the Parties to the Peace Process.

The Transitional Government of Sudan and the Parties to the Peace Process have concluded this Agreement.

TITLE 1.

AGREEMENT ON NATIONAL ISSUES
BETWEEN THE TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT OF SUDAN
AND SIGNATORY PARTIES TO THIS AGREEMENT

1. General Principles:

- 1.1. All principles provided for in the agreements concluded in the different tracks in Juba shall constitute an integral part of the principles of the peace agreement with the signatory parties.
- 1.2. All the provisions and principles provided for in this agreement shall not infringe on any of the principles agreed upon in any of the tracks.
- 1.3. Sudan is an independent, sovereign, democratic, and federal state in which sovereignty is vested in the people and exercised by the state in accordance with the provisions of the Constitutional Charter, the Peace Agreement and any subsequent constitution to be agreed upon by the Sudanese people.
- 1.4. The peoples of Sudan are the source of all powers and the government at all levels shall be accountable to the people.
- 1.5. Ending the war and achieving peace in Sudan represents a sound entry point for achieving security, stability, and democratization in the country.
- 1.6. Maintaining the unity of Sudan's people and territory through transformation to a new system of just and good governance shall be a key objective for the peaceful transfer of power in Sudan.
- 1.7. Complete separation of religious institutions and state institutions to ensure that religion is not exploited in politics and that the state stands at equal distance from all religions and beliefs, provided that this is enshrined in the constitution and laws of the country.
- 1.8. There shall be a commitment to peaceful civil practice and denouncing all forms of violence in political action.
- 1.9. Acknowledgment of and respect for the Sudanese identity and the ethnic, religious and cultural diversity of Sudanese peoples without discrimination on any grounds shall be reflected in the governance system and policies in order to build a state based on equal citizenship for all Sudanese people.
- 1.10. The principle of unity shall be adopted which is based on mutual recognition and respect among the human, social, political, religious and cultural components of the Sudanese state.
- 1.11. The racial, ethnic, religious, linguistic, and cultural diversity of the Sudanese people is a source of richness for the Sudanese people and, therefore, shall be strengthened, developed, and managed in accordance with the standards that reflect national unity.
- 1.12. Just power sharing is important to the unity, security and stability of Sudan. The peaceful transfer of power through free and fair elections, and the delegation of legislative, executive, and judicial powers to the different levels of governance are guarantees for stability and is the solid foundation for democratic governance in Sudan.
- 1.13. The separation of executive, legislative, and judicial powers should lead to reinforcing of the foundations of good governance, accountability, transparency, and commitment to the security and well-being of the people.

- 1.14. The bill of rights enshrined in the Constitutional Charter constitutes a social contract among all Sudanese people. Fundamental human rights and freedoms included in this document shall be upheld and advanced.
- 1.15. All rights and freedoms provided for in international and regional human rights agreements, covenants, and charters ratified by the Republic of Sudan shall be an integral part of this agreement.
- 1.16. Legal reform, restructuring and improving the judicial and legal system, and ensuring the independence of the judiciary and the rule of law are tasks that must be implemented.
- 1.17. Equal citizenship without discrimination is the basis for all civil, political, economic, social, and cultural rights and duties.
- 1.18. Without prejudice to the conditions of qualification and competency and the implementation of the peace agreements concluded with the signatory parties, all Sudanese citizens shall be fairly represented in the civil service, public committees, institutions, commissions, armed forces, and other regular forces at all levels.
- 1.19. The participation of all Sudanese people shall be guaranteed at all levels of governance, state institutions, and civil service. Fair standards for power sharing shall be developed, without prejudice to the conditions of qualification and competency.
- 1.20. The importance of fair and effective representation of women at all levels of power and decision-making positions, at a rate of not less than 40% forty percent.
- 1.21. The equitable sharing of power and wealth, while observing positive discrimination for war- and conflict-affected areas and least developed areas, as well as addressing the issues of marginalization and the most afflicted and vulnerable groups, is necessary in order to build a state of durable peace, stability, and good governance.
- 1.22. Justice, accountability, reconciliation, and transitional justice are critical for ensuring durable peace and security in Sudan. Justice shall be founded on upholding the rule of law, the ratified international human rights conventions, and international humanitarian law, including through mechanisms based on the customs, cultures, and heritage of the Sudanese peoples.
- 1.23. The Parties shall hold a conference for reconciliation and social healing, provided that the Parties agree on mechanisms and schedules therefor, with a commitment to the participation of all Sudanese people without exclusion.
- 1.24. Combating impunity and bringing justice for victims are necessary for building national reconciliation, healing, promoting the values of peaceful coexistence, and strengthening the social fabric.
- 1.25. All Sudanese languages shall be considered national languages that should be equally respected, developed, and celebrated.
- 1.26. Political pluralism and the formation of political parties, trade unions and other organizations are essential for good governance and political participation in Sudan.
- 1.27. Transparency and free access to information shall be guaranteed for all citizens on equal footing, in accordance with the Constitution and as regulated by law.
- 1.28. The future “permanent” constitution of Sudan shall be the result of a constitution-making process that begins with the Constitutional Conference and is transparent, participatory, inclusive, and covers all topics.
- 1.29. Regions of Sudan shall be represented in federal and legislative institutions of power in proportion to their population size to ensure just power sharing, while observing the principle of positive discrimination for the most underdeveloped and war-affected regions, for equitable distribution of wealth.

1.30. Without prejudice to what has been agreed to in the security arrangements documents for the tracks of Darfur and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement – North/ The Revolutionary Front, the Parties agree to reform and develop the security and military sector at the national level.

1.31. The scope of general amnesty as stipulated in this agreement shall not apply to war crimes, crimes against humanity, genocide, sexual violence, the use of soldiers under the age of 18, and gross violations of human rights and international humanitarian law.

2. Transitional Period:

2.1. The Parties agree to a thirty-nine (39) month transitional period that enters into force upon the date of signing the peace agreement.

3. Article (20) of the Constitutional Charter:

3.1. The Parties agree to exempt representatives of parties to the peace process signatory to this agreement from Article 20 of the Constitutional Charter in the Sovereign Council and the Council of Ministers. This provision shall not apply to state/region governors. The aforementioned provision shall apply to exempt representatives, provided that they shall submit their resignation six months prior to the end of the agreed upon transitional period. Their respective organizations may choose their successors in those positions.

4. Sovereign Council:

4.1. The Parties agree that parties of the peace process signatory to this agreement shall be represented on the current transitional Sovereignty Council by three (3) members.

5. Council of Ministers:

5.1. The Parties agree that the peace process parties signatory to this agreement shall be represented on the Council of Ministers by five ministries, which equals twenty five percent (25%) of the national Council of Ministers, in accordance with the procedures established in the Constitutional Charter.

6. The Transitional Legislative Council:

6.1. The Parties agree that the peace process parties signatory to this agreement shall be represented on the Transitional Legislative Council by twenty five percent (25%), which is equal to seventy-five (75) seats out of the total number of the three hundred (300) seats.

7. The National Capital:

7.1. The national capital with its three cities shall constitute a symbol of national unity with the rich cultural and social diversity and numerous faiths and traditions they encompass. This requires taking into account the participation of all people of Sudan to manage this great diversity. Therefore, an administration for the national capital shall be established, taking into consideration the fair representation of Sudanese people, provided that the agreed upon Governance Conference shall decide upon it.

7.2. The national capital is a reflection of the Sudanese nation, and as such shall reflect the national character of Sudan with its diversity and values of citizenship without discrimination. It shall also effectively uphold the interests of all Sudanese, especially citizens who have been residing in it before it became a national capital of Sudan.

7.3. To strike a balance between Khartoum's status as the capital and as a region/state large parts of which suffer from marginalization, the impact of war, displacement, and environmental and service defaults; an economic, social and cultural plan must be developed to promote coexistence, solve the crises of services, infrastructure, the environment, lands, and the organic linkage between the urban and rural areas of the national capital under a development framework that can restore the productive character of the countryside, that does not turn the capital city into an incubator for displacement without resolution of the issues of the countryside, with development and ending the causes of wars and displacement.

- 7.4. The Parties agree on the importance of effective participation of the residents of Khartoum State in the state-level government agencies, in ministerial and other executive and legislative positions, and in commissions and high administrative positions in institutions of the state of Khartoum.
- 7.5. To ensure that the administration of the national capital reflects the diversity of Sudan, the Parties agree that the peace process parties shall participate in the institutions of the national capital administration after deciding on its status in the Governance Conference.

8. National Commissions, Committees, Agencies, and Institutions:

- 8.1. Representation in the commissions and committees provided for in the peace agreements shall be in accordance with the provisions stipulated in the peace agreements concluded in the different negotiation tracks.
- 8.2. National committees whose nature requires appointing partisan personalities, shall include representation of the peace process parties in the same proportion as their representation at the national level, including the chairmanship of those bodies, without prejudice to what has been agreed in the different negotiation tracks.
- 8.3. The Parties agree that signatory parties to this agreement shall hold the positions that they have obtained under this agreement until the end of the transitional period. They shall respectively assume responsibility for providing a replacement if a position becomes vacant, in accordance with the loss of membership conditions for the specific position.
- 8.4. The Parties agree that the Civil Service Reform Commission shall undertake the task of reviewing appointments in leading positions in the civil service that were made since the formation of the Transitional Government, provided that the Parties agree on how the commission should be formed.
- 8.5. The Parties agree on the participation of signatory parties to this agreement in the Anti-Corruption Committee and other committees to be established pursuant to the conditions thereof.
- 8.6. The Parties agree to establish and structure commissions relevant to the implementation of the peace agreement in partnership with signatory parties to this agreement.

9. The Constitutional Conference:

- 9.1. The Parties agree on holding the national constitutional conference well in advance of the end of the transitional period, as agreed by the Parties. The national Constitutional Conference shall address essential issues and determine how Sudan shall be governed, address the issues of nation-building, and reach a social contract to build a new system based on democracy, citizenship and social justice.
- 9.2. The Commission for the Constitutional Conference and Constitution Drafting shall prepare for the national Constitutional Conference with the participation of all Sudanese parties, provided that it starts its work in a participatory, transparent, and inclusive manner within no more than (6) six months from the date of signing the peace agreement.
- 9.3. The Parties agree that the Commission for the Constitutional Conference and Constitution Drafting shall define objective criteria against which the participants in the national constitutional conference shall be selected.

- 9.4. The Parties agree on the effective participation of the parties to the peace agreement in drafting the law and establishing the Commission for the Constitutional Conference and Constitution Drafting.
- 9.5. The national Constitutional Conference agenda shall include, but not be limited to, the following topics:
 - 9.5.1. Identity and diversity management;
 - 9.5.2. Citizenship;
 - 9.5.3. Relationship of religion to the state;
 - 9.5.4. Reform and development of the security sector;
 - 9.5.5. Issues of governance and authority;
 - 9.5.6. Issues of wealth, development, the environment, and the economy;
 - 9.5.7. Foreign policy;
 - 9.5.8. How to approve the permanent national constitution;
 - 9.5.9. Any other issues defined by the Commission for the Constitutional Conference and Constitution Drafting;
- 9.6. The Parties agree that the Government of Sudan shall commit to providing the necessary funding for the national constitutional conference;
- 9.7. The Parties agree to the fair and equal representation, on the bases of gender, diversity, geography, and age, in the national constitutional conference, and that constitutional conferences in the regions shall be held as part of the constitution-drafting process.

10. System of Governance Conference:

- 10.1. The Parties agree to hold a System of Governance Conference to define the powers and vertical and horizontal relationships of the regional system of governance, without prejudice to the obligations stipulated in the different track-specific agreements.
- 10.2. The Parties agree to establish a system of regional governance as set forth in the peace agreements, provided that the Transitional Government of Sudan shall take the necessary legal measures to issue an official decision to restore the system of regions in a period of no more than (60) sixty days from the date of signing the peace agreement with the signatory parties of this agreement.
- 10.3. The System of Governance Conference in Sudan shall be held no more than (6) six months after the date of signing the peace agreement. The conference shall aim to review the borders and administrative division of the regions; the different levels of governance; and structures, powers and competencies of the regions in a fashion that does not contravene the peace agreements signed by the parties in Juba.

11. Reforming the Justice System:

- 11.1. The Parties agree on the importance of reforming the justice system so as to restore its professionalism, independence, and prestige.

12. Census:

- 12.1. The Parties agree to conduct a national census in an effective and transparent manner before the end of the transitional period, with international support and oversight.

13. Elections:

- 13.1. The Parties agree to hold free and fair general elections with international monitoring at the end of the transitional period, provided that it is preceded by the implementation of the agreed plan for the return of IDPs and refugees, as stipulated in the different track agreements, holding of the national Constitutional Conference, conducting the census, issuing the law on elections and political parties, and establishing the Elections Commission.

14. National Issues of Particularity: The Parties agree on the importance of addressing the following national issues of particularity:

14.1. Kanabi: Guiding principles for the package of socioeconomic remedies:

- 14.1.1. Stressing the importance of finding urgent and necessary solutions for the issues of permanent housing and services for the Kanabi communities; stressing the importance of finding solutions, within the national framework, to promote rights and support the opportunities of coexistence and social integration.
- 14.1.2. The importance of engaging with local communities, the Kanabi community, and academic and religious institutions in solutions and mechanisms therefor.
- 14.1.3. Stressing the importance of finding remedies that promote the economic and productive role that these communities have always played in the private productive projects.
- 14.1.4. The Parties agree to create a national committee to be called the National Committee to Address the Issues of Housing and Services for the Kanabi Communities.
- 14.1.5. The national government shall appoint the Committee within a period of no more than (45) days of the date of signing the peace agreement.
- 14.1.6. The composition of the national Committee shall take into consideration the representation of relevant local communities, academic institutions and representatives of religious schools, provided that the chairperson of the committee is a person known for their independence.
- 14.1.7. The national government shall commit to enforcing the outcomes of the committee and shall incur the financial and legal consequences thereof.
- 14.1.8. The committee shall submit its recommendations to the national government within a period of no more than one year from the date of its establishment.

14.2. The Environment:

- 14.2.1. The Parties agree that the government shall commit to establishing the necessary foundations, policies, laws, and implementation mechanisms for addressing and coordinating the environmental sector in order to protect the environment and preserve its overall sustainable balance; to end environmental degradation; to mitigate conflict over resources; and to seek to address the socioeconomic impacts of environmental degradation, climate change, and all environmental causes of conflict as a key and necessary requirement for peacebuilding, maintaining natural resources, and achieving the sustainable development goals. This requires establishing the principle of sustainable institutional and legal reform and professional reform.

14.3. Christians and communities of African religions and other beliefs:

- 14.3.1. The Parties agree on establishing a National Commission for Religious Freedoms to address the issues of religious diversity in Sudan.

14.4. Conference for the States of Khartoum and North Kordofan

- 14.4.1. To achieve nationwide comprehensive peace in Sudan, including in the regions/states outside of the conflict areas; the parties agree to the following:
 - 14.4.1.1. Without prejudice to what has been agreed to in the Tracks, the Transitional Government of Sudan shall organize two conferences to address the issues of the states of North Kordofan and Khartoum within (6) months from the date of signing this agreement.

14.4.1.2. The conferences shall address issues of development, public services, environment, and peaceful coexistence, in those two states.

14.4.1.3. The Transitional Government shall commit to enforcing the outcomes of the two conferences.

14.5. Herders, Nomads, and Farmers:

14.5.1. The Parties agree to establish a National Commission for Herders, Nomads, and Farmers within (3) three months of the date of signing the peace agreement by the signatory parties.

15. Sudan Partners Conference to Support the Transitional Period and Peace:

15.1. The Parties agree to immediately include the signatory parties to the peace agreement in the political and technical mechanism undertaking the preparation of the Sudan partners' conference to support the transitional period and peace.

15.2. The Government of Sudan shall commit to holding a donor conference in which pledges made therein shall be allocated for supporting the implementation of the peace agreement.

16. Partners, Guarantors and Witnesses:

16.1. The Parties agree to establish a joint committee composed of the mediator and parties to the agreement to develop a plan and conduct the necessary immediate communications with all the parties, including partners, guarantors, and witnesses of the peace agreement with the signatory parties to this agreement.

17. General Amnesty:

17.1. The Government shall commit to granting a general amnesty for passed rulings and standing warrants against political leadership and members of armed movements in relation to their membership therein, following the necessary legal review by the competent bodies immediately upon signing the peace agreement.

17.2. The Government shall commit to returning the property of organizations and individuals that has been confiscated because of the war, provided that ownership of the property is proven by any acceptable means.

18. Combating Racism

18.1. The Parties agree to issue strict legislation criminalizing all kinds of racism and to adopt clear state policies to combat different forms of racial attitudes, discrimination, and manifestations of ethnic and religious supremacy through education curricula, media, and building an integrated societal culture that respects human dignity and upholds the values of equality between human being without discrimination.

19. Transitional Justice

19.1. Without prejudice to what has been agreed in negotiation tracks, the Parties agree to accord the issue of transitional justice the utmost priority and to form a Transitional Justice Commission within thirty (30) days of the date of signing the peace agreement with the signatory parties to this agreement, provided that transitional justice mechanisms encompass all of Sudan, particularly the conflict areas.

20. Peace Commission

20.1. The Parties agree to form a Peace Commission tasked with implementing the comprehensive peace agreement with the participation of signatory parties in preparing the commission law and structure.

21. Mechanism for Monitoring and Evaluating the Peace Agreement:

21.1. The Parties agree to establish a mechanism to monitor and evaluate the final peace agreement. The mechanism shall be composed of representatives of the signatory parties, the mediator, the guarantors and any other components agreed to by the Parties. The mechanism shall be established upon signing of the peace agreement.

21.2. The Parties agree to include the signed peace agreements in the Constitutional Charter. In the event of conflict, the conflict shall be eliminated by amending the Constitutional Charter.

22. The National Revenue Fund

22.1. A National Revenue Fund in which all revenues and financial returns are deposited shall be established. It shall be regulated by law and be the sole institution for depositing revenues.

23. The National Commission of Resources and Financial Revenue Sharing and Allocation

23.1. By virtue of a law, a commission for the division, allocation, and monitoring of financial revenues shall be established in accordance with the standards to be agreed upon. The commission shall be chaired by an independent person appointed by the Prime Minister. The law shall ensure fair representation of the regions/states therein.

23.2. A law activating the commission shall be issued within no more than ninety (90) days of signing the peace agreement.

23.3. The Commission shall commit to ensuring transparency, remedying the imbalances in the allocation of national revenues, and distributing those revenues on a horizontal and vertical basis fairly among Sudan's various regions, particularly regions affected by the war and cumulative historical grievances. The commission shall further ensure that neither the federal government nor any other party shall be deprived from receipt of their financial entitlements and shall ensure timely disbursement as agreed.

24. Sudanese Diaspora:

24.1. The Parties agree that the Transitional Government of Sudan shall endeavor to create the appropriate conditions to connect Sudanese diaspora abroad with their homeland through addressing, among other things, the issue of education for the children of Sudanese diaspora in Sudanese institutions, ensuring rewarding conditions for their remittances and creating incentives to improve their opportunities for investment and settlement in Sudan.

25. Sudanese National Business Sector

25.1. The Parties agree that the Transitional Government of Sudan shall, within the framework of its economic and developmental program, commit to economic legislation and policies conducive to promoting the role of the private sector in development and to developing and establishing a productive partnership between the government and civil society based on solid foundations.

26. Education

26.1. As a comprehensive development renaissance in the country requires modern education, the Parties agree that the Government of Sudan shall commit to mandatory and free public education, introducing policies, holding education conferences, providing the necessary resources to assure quality education for all and to eliminating gaps and regional, gender, and social imbalances in education particularly in the war-affected and least developed areas.

27. Pension-dependent and Dismissed Personnel:

27.1. The Parties agree that the Transitional Government of Sudan shall endeavor to redress pension-dependent and dismissed personnel, improve their living conditions and making use of their experience in setting policies for the implementation of transitional-period tasks.

28. Northern Sudan and Central Sudan Tracks

29.1. The Parties agree to 10% representation of the parties to the peace agreement and any other parties determined by the Parties in governance in North Kordofan State and West Kordofan State.

TITLE 2.

DARFUR AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TRANSITINOAL GOVERNMENT OF SUDAN AND DARFUR PARTIES TO PEACE

CHAPTER 1: POWER SHARING PROTOCOL

1. General Principles
2. Sudan is a federal, independent, and sovereign state in which sovereignty is vested in the people and is exercised by the state in accordance with the provisions of the Constitutional Charter.
3. Ending the war and achieving peace in Sudan represents the proper path for the realization of security, stability, and the country's transition to democratization.
4. Complete separation of religious institutions from state institutions to ensure that religion is not exploited in politics.
5. The Parties agree to abide by a peaceful civil approach and denounce all forms of violence in political practice.
6. For the purpose of being registered as political parties, the Parties agree to exempt armed political movements from the provisions of the Political Parties Law of 2007 provided that those movements are signatory to the Peace Agreement that includes security arrangements.
7. Addressing the issue of identity is critical due to its close connection to the historical roots of the crisis in Sudan.
8. The ethnic, religious, linguistic, and cultural diversity of the Sudanese people is the basis of national cohesion and will therefore be promoted, developed and managed in accordance with the standards that reflect national unity.
9. The Sudanese people have their diversity and common aspirations, and we must work to achieve this jointly.
10. Power-sharing is significantly important to the unity, security and stability of the country and represents the peaceful transfer of power through free and fair elections, and the transfer of legislative and executive powers as a guarantee of stability and the foundation of democratic governance in Sudan.

11. The separation of executive, legislative, and judicial powers should unite the foundations of good governance, accountability, transparency and commitment to the security and well-being of the people.
12. The Charter of Rights contained in the Constitutional Charter shall be a covenant between all the people of Sudan and between them and their governments at all levels, and there is an obligation on their part to respect and promote the human rights and fundamental freedoms contained in the Charter, which shall be considered the cornerstone of social justice, equality, and democracy in Sudan.
13. All rights and freedoms enshrined in international and regional human rights treaties and conventions ratified by the Republic of Sudan are an integral part of this Agreement.
14. Emphasizing legal reform and review and development of the rights and justice system and ensuring the independence of the judiciary and the rule of law.
15. Citizenship shall be the basis of rights and duties with no discrimination on the basis of race, tribe, religion, gender, sex or origin. This does not prevent the existence of laws, programs or activities aimed at improving the conditions of those individuals or groups who have been deprived of their rights based on race, color, religion, or regional or national origin.
16. The displacement of citizens inside or outside Sudan does not prevent the full exercise of their civil rights.
17. Establishing a system of governance in which the authorities are effectively empowered and responsibilities are fairly distributed, ensuring general and equal participation of all citizens in Sudan.
18. All Sudanese citizens shall be justly and fairly represented in the civil service, public bodies, institutions, commissions, armed forces and other regular forces at all upper and middle levels.
19. Darfur citizens shall be guaranteed participation at all levels of government, state institutions, and civil service through equitable power-sharing standards.
20. Peace programs shall be given sufficient periods of time to ensure the effective implementation of this Agreement.
21. Equitable power-sharing is vital for Sudan's unity, security and stability.
22. Stressing the importance of the representation of women at all levels of power and decision-making positions.
23. Stressing the importance of definitively addressing the imbalance in the distribution of power and wealth in Sudan.
24. The Supremacy of this agreement over the Constitutional Charter
 - 24.1. The Parties agree on including the signed peace agreements in the Constitutional Charter and in the event of a conflict, the Constitutional Charter shall be amended to remedy such conflict.

25. Power and Levels of Governance

- 25.1. The Parties agree to restore the regional-federal system of governance based on the principle of establishing a genuine federal system of governance that meets the aspirations of citizens and engages them in governance.
- 25.2. The Parties agree on establishing a regional-federal system of governance in Sudan including in the Darfur Region provided that the Transitional Government of Sudan takes the necessary legal measures to issue an official decision to restore the system of regions within no more than 60 (sixty days) from the date of signing the Peace Agreement.
- 25.3. A conference on the system of governance in Sudan shall be held within no more than 6 (six months) after the signing of the comprehensive Peace Agreement provided that it aims at reviewing the administrative division of the various regions and levels of governance as well as the structures, powers, and jurisdictions thereof. The Parties shall further agree on participants of the conference.
- 25.4. If the conference is not held in the specified time, then the government of the Region of Darfur shall be activated in all its powers and competencies in no more than 7 (seven months) from the date of signing this agreement.
- 25.5. The Parties agree on defining the legislative and executive competencies, authorities, and powers in Darfur Region under the Peace Agreement provided that the conference on the system of governance makes no amendment to those competencies, authorities, and powers except by adding to them. These powers and authorities shall be activated within no more than 30 (thirty days) after holding the conference on the system of governance.
- 25.6. The Parties agree to the representation of parties to the Darfur Track agreement in power as follows:
- 25.6.1. 40% of power in Darfur to the components of the Darfur Track;
 - 25.6.2. 30% of power in Darfur to the components of Sudan's Transitional Government;
 - 25.6.3. 10% of power in Darfur to other movements signatory to this agreement;
 - 25.6.4. 20% of power in Darfur to stakeholders, as defined in the stakeholders' document and through a mechanism to supervise their selection to be agreed on by the Parties.
 - 25.6.5. The Parties shall take into account all components of Darfur when selecting representatives in the aforementioned percentages, so as to reflect the geographic, social, and civil diversity in Darfur to ensure social coexistence and a durable peace.
- 25.7. The Parties agree that components of the Darfur Track shall participate in the regional government after it is established and that this government's leadership shall be nominated by the components to the Darfur Track.
- 25.8. The Parties agree to form a joint high committee that shall work with the Peace Commission, provided that this committee oversees and monitors the implementation of this Agreement and works side by side with the concerned state institutions according to the schedules of the implementation matrix.

26. National Civil Service

- 26.1. The Parties agree to address the imbalance in the national civil service in favor of citizens of Darfur at all levels of employment according to population ratio and positive discrimination standards, provided that appointments are made in accordance with eligibility and competence criteria.
- 26.2. The Parties agree to accommodate the men and women of Darfur in upper and mid-level positions (undersecretaries, ambassadors, members of diplomatic missions, general managers, various administrations and departments in national ministries and commissions, the judiciary, public prosecution, national and semi-national institutions, banks, and the boards of public and semi-public companies) by 20% provided that appointment is made by political decree within 45 (forty-five days) of the date of signing the Peace Agreement.

- 26.3. The Parties agree to form a joint committee to select persons to be accommodated by the foregoing article.
- 26.4. The Parties agree to form a committee to identify the imbalance in civil service. The committee shall comprise specialists agreed upon by the Parties under the supervision of the Civil Service Reform Commission to identify the imbalance in the representation of the men and women of Darfur in the national civil service at all employment levels and in all state institutions within a period not exceeding 6 (six months) from the date it commences operations. The committee shall submit its report to the Civil Service [Reform] Commission and the Parties to this Agreement. The Prime Minister shall take all necessary corrective measures within no more than 45 (forty-five days) from the date of the submission of the report, provided that the committee commences undertaking its mandates within 60 (sixty days) from the date of signing of the Peace Agreement.
- 26.5. The Parties agree to address the imbalance in the representation of the men and women of Darfur in the national civil service as defined by the committee referred to in the aforementioned paragraph by applying the standards of population proportionality and positive discrimination, while taking stock of the advantages and disadvantages of previous experiences and taking standards of qualification and competence into consideration.
- 26.6. Persons arbitrarily dismissed from civil service for reasons related to the conflict in Darfur shall have their situation remedied through the National Committee for the Reinstitution of Arbitrarily Dismissed Persons.

27. Judiciary

- 27.1. The Parties agree to undertake institutional reforms in the judiciary to appoint/accommodate men and women from Darfur at a rate of 20% within no more than 6 (six months) of the date of signing the Peace Agreement while taking into consideration standards of competence, qualification, and positive discrimination for the men and women of Darfur.
- 27.2. The Parties agree that the Supreme Judicial Council shall form an independent expert committee concerned with accommodating men and women from Darfur in the judiciary in accordance with agreed upon percentages while taking into consideration standards of competence, qualification, and positive discrimination for the men and women of Darfur.

28. The Public Prosecution Office

- 28.1. The Parties agree to undertake institutional reforms in the Public Prosecution Office to appoint/accommodate men and women from Darfur by a percentage of 20% within no more than 6 (six months) from the date of signing the Peace Agreement while taking into consideration standards of competence, qualification, and positive discrimination for the men and women of Darfur.
- 28.2. The Parties agree that the High Council of the Public Prosecution shall form an independent expert committee concerned with accommodating men and women from Darfur in the Public Prosecution Office in accordance with agreed upon percentages while taking into consideration standards of competence, qualification, and positive discrimination for the men and women of Darfur.

29. Educational Institutions

- 29.1. The Parties agree that war and neglect in Darfur had a direct impact on the deterioration of the quality of education and the low level of educational attainment. Hence, such imbalance calls for correction based on the principle of positive discrimination, according to the following policies:
- 29.1.1. Reconsider admission eligibility criteria for universities and public high institutes, and introduce positive discrimination to admission policies while allocating 15% in the following specializations: medicine, veterinary, animal production, medical laboratories, public health, radiology, pharmacology, engineering and all scientific disciplines among those admitted to public universities and higher institutes in Sudan and no less than 50% with regards to public universities and high institutes in Darfur to the students of Darfur for a minimum of ten years.
- 29.1.2. The Parties agree to the exemption of tuition fees for all men and women of Darfur studying in public universities in Darfur for a period of ten years as of the date of signing the comprehensive Peace Agreement.
- 29.1.3. In furtherance of positive discrimination policies, the Parties agree to the exemption of tuition fees for all men and women of Darfur studying in public universities outside the Darfur Region in the disciplines of medicine, veterinary, animal production, medical laboratories, public health, radiology, pharmacology, engineering and all scientific disciplines for a period of ten years as of the date of signing the comprehensive Peace Agreement provided that students admitted by the end of the said period shall be exempted from tuition fees until the end of their education.
- 29.1.4. The Parties agree on introducing a system for fund allocation from the Government of Sudan to public universities in the Darfur Region to rehabilitate and improve the academic environment, expand admission, and nationalize some important disciplines.
- 29.1.5. The Parties agree to the formation of a joint committee comprising the Transitional Government of Sudan (Ministry of Higher Education, Ministry of Finance) and relevant authorities in the Darfur Region to undertake the following tasks:
- 29.1.5.1. Introduce specific policies aimed at uplifting higher education in the universities of Darfur including the situation in disciplines related to social and economic development.
- 29.1.5.2. The committee shall identify standards and criteria for the exemption of IDPs, refugees, and nomads from tuition fees when they are admitted to public universities outside Darfur Region.
- 29.2. The Federal Government of Sudan and the regional government shall introduce and implement development plans to improve educational institutions in Darfur, along with the provision of grants, scholarships and training, to remedy the imbalance of access to basic, secondary and university education in Darfur, with the aim to upgrade education in Darfur and enable it to take its position at national levels of admission in educational institutions and accomplishments at all levels.
- 29.3. 20% of the grants, scholarships, qualification and training opportunities inside Sudan or abroad shall be allocated to the men and women of Darfur.
- 29.4. Budgets shall be allocated for establishing and supporting institutes of vocational training and technical and craft education to accommodate education gaps and dropouts.
- 29.5. Establish pedagogical schools and institutes while introducing the necessary plans for addressing the crisis of educational gaps due to war inside and outside the Region.

29.6. Eliminate all obstacles to extracting university diplomas for students who completed studying in universities and higher institutes by virtue of previous peace agreements.

30. Powers of the Regional Government of Darfur

30.1. The Parties agree that Darfur Region shall have exclusive executive and legislative powers to enable it to implement the Peace Agreement as follows:

- 30.1.1. To adopt and amend the constitution of the regional government of Darfur in a manner that does not contradict the national constitution;

CHAPTER 2: WEALTH SHARING PROTOCOL

General Principles

1. The Parties recognize that sustainable peace in Sudan requires a fair allocation of resources and revenues between the Government of Sudan and the different regions of Sudan, especially the conflict-affected regions.
2. All lands and natural resources in Sudan regions/states, including Darfur, shall be resources for the good of all the people of Sudan.
3. The Parties agree to develop and improve the nomadic sector by following policies for their development, through opening tracks to solve the issues of conflict between herders and farmers, providing all services, encouraging the animal products manufacturing industry, and opening markets inside and outside Sudan.
4. The Parties emphasize the importance of mobilizing the necessary local, regional, and international support to restore what had been destroyed by the war, to rehabilitate the infrastructure, and to implement reconstruction and development programs as provided for in this Agreement.
5. The Parties agree to setting specific standards and mechanisms for wealth and revenue sharing, to be regulated in accordance with laws and regulations based on the principles of proportional and equitable distribution, transparent management, and national, regional, and local oversight of the resources.
6. The Parties understand that the sources of wealth stipulated in this Agreement do not only mean direct state revenues, but include opportunities of income generation from employment in the private and public sectors, the return of investment in different areas, the revenues of border trade returns, grants and loans, and other sources of income.
7. Disbursement of all the Zakat money collected in the regions/states inside the respective regions/states through their various disbursement channels.
8. Development of enforcement structures and institutions for land management that are legally supported by legislation enacted to promote sustainable development and address environmental degradation.
9. Environmental conservation policies shall include promoting the production and development of alternative sources of energy, developing the quality and quantity of the pastoral sector, and developing policies that ensure the optimal utilization of lands and water resources and improving research capacities in these fields.
10. Development of sound foundations for sharing wealth generated from oil, natural gas, and other natural resources in Sudan and directing them to meet the needs of development and the reconstruction of Sudan's regions/states in general, while prioritizing the marginalized and war-affected regions/states, and paying special attention to the environment.
11. Those foundations shall include the sustainable use of non-renewable resources, such as oil, natural gas, and other fossil fuels, in accordance with the interest of the afflicted regions/states and locals in those areas, while taking into consideration best practices for the environment, including the Guidelines for the Conservation of Bio-Diversity and the Principles of Safeguarding Cultural Heritage.

12. National Revenue

- 12.1. The Government of Sudan shall have the authority to generate revenue from all sources of wealth in the country;
- 12.2. There should be definitive identification and clear separation between the sources of revenue of the federal government and the sources of revenue of the regions/states to avoid disputes and ensure good production and management of resources.

13. National Revenue Fund

- 13.1. A national fund for revenue shall be established and regulated by a law wherein all national financial revenue is deposited. It shall be the only institution for depositing revenue.

14. National Commission for the Division, Allocation, and Monitoring of Financial Resources and Revenue

- 14.1. A commission for the division, allocation, and monitoring of financial resources and revenue shall be established by a law in accordance with the standards to be agreed upon. The Commission shall have an independent chairperson appointed by the Prime Minister. The law shall ensure equitable representation of the regions/states;
- 14.2. A law shall be enacted to activate the Commission within no more than ninety (90) days from the date of signing this Agreement;
- 14.3. The Commission shall be committed to ensuring transparency and to addressing shortcomings in the equitable allocation and distribution of national resources horizontally and vertically between the different regions of Sudan and monitoring thereof, especially regions affected by the war and accumulated historic grievances. The Commission shall also ensure that neither the federal government nor any other party are deprived of the enjoyment of their financial dues and it shall ensure the flow thereof at the agreed intervals.

15. The Commission for the Division, Allocation, and Monitoring of Financial Resources and Revenue shall have the following competencies:

- 15.1. Monitor all national revenues deposited in the National Revenue Fund and place them under its mandate;
- 15.2. Determine the dues and allocations of the federal government and the regions/states from the national revenue to meet the needs of all levels of governance, horizontally and vertically;
- 15.3. Ensure this allocation is based on fair and equitable standards and bases that are agreed upon and subject to regular revision, in keeping with the developments at the federal and regional/state levels;
- 15.4. Ensure that the transfer of funds to the states and regions occurs in a timely and unfettered manner. It shall also ensure the optimal use and sharing of these transfers between the regions/states and the different levels of governance;
- 15.5. Ensure that resources allocated to war-affected areas are transferred in accordance with the agreed upon standards;
- 15.6. Transparent implementation of the agreed upon standards, bases, and proportions to guarantee fairness when allocating funds to the federal government and the regions/states;

 15.7.Ensure that national resources are allocated according to standards and principles that ensure equality among the Sudanese people and encourage production and effectiveness in revenue collection and good resource management.

16. Revenue of the Darfur Region/States

- 16.1.The Region/states of Darfur shall have the right to generate its own revenue and receive revenue from tax and non-tax related sources, including from the allocations of the National Commission for the Division, Allocation, and Monitoring of Financial Resources and Revenue; the National Revenue Fund; revenue from taxation and different fees (sales taxes, private business, in addition to their share of the value-added tax and the betterment levy, licensing fees, works fees); and the return of their investments and border trade; their share from the sale of extracted natural resources, aid, grants and loans, in accordance with federal policy and the provisions of this Agreement;
- 16.2.The government of the Darfur Region/States shall have the exclusive authority to determine how best to spend revenue generated or received;
- 16.3.The government of the Darfur Region/States shall have the power to spend its own revenue for effective governance and fulfillment of its obligations as stipulated in the Peace Agreement;
- 16.4.The government of the Darfur Region/States shall develop policies and regulations and determine how best to spend revenue based on the interest of the region/states, common good, environment protection, and the interests of local population without conflicting with national policies and the provisions of the Peace Agreement.

17. Darfur Reconstruction and Development Commission

- 17.1.A commission for the reconstruction and development of Darfur shall be established within ninety (90) days of the date of signing the Peace Agreement. The headquarters of the Commission shall be in one of the cities of the region and it shall have the right to create branches in other cities when the need arises, provided that all assets belonging to the funds established for development and reconstruction by previous peace agreements be transferred to this commission. The Commission shall continue the projects that have been initiated thereunder in addition to new projects;
- 17.2.The Commission may seek the assistance of experts to revise and develop corrective measures for the work of the Fund and evaluate the implementation of previous development projects;
- 17.3.The Parties shall agree on the structure and mechanisms of the Commission for the Reconstruction and Development of Darfur pursuant to the principles stipulated in the Peace Agreement;
- 17.4.The Commission shall develop its own work regulations, rules and procedure, and decision-making processes under this agreement.

18. Functions of the Reconstruction and Development Commission

- 18.1.Completing ongoing projects or funding new projects;
- 18.2.Reconstructing schools, hospitals, health centers, water sources, and other vital institutions that have been destroyed by the war;
- 18.3.Providing basic services, including the inputs of education, health, drinking water, veterinary hospitals, and police stations in areas of voluntary return;
- 18.4.Providing the basic services set forth in Paragraph (18.2) in areas of resettlement for those who inhabited the lands of others illegally;

- 18.5. Building reservoirs and dams in Darfur’s main valleys to harvest water for drinking and agriculture, in addition to the provision of water and its networks for key cities in the region;
- 18.6. Providing the region with an electricity grid that covers urban and rural areas and that is sufficient for industrial needs;
- 18.7. Improving livestock to produce competitive products in domestic and international markets;
- 18.8. Planting wheat, fodder, and other winter products by utilizing water from the Nubian basin and introducing mixed agriculture into the north of the region to resettle herders and prevent tension that arises between them and farmers when they migrate southward, in search of water and grass;
- 18.9. Linking the region with a network of roads that facilitates the maintenance of security and movement of products to the markets within and outside the region.
- 18.10. Investing in mining to produce more materials;
- 18.11. Providing resources for micro-financing to increase the productivity of households in general, and households of IDPs and refugees specifically;
- 18.12. Training and building the capacity of women and youth to enable them to be catalysts of production;
- 18.13. Creating projects that generate job opportunities for the population of the region.

19. Development Projects

- 19.1. Existing development projects shall be prioritized to receive funds from the Darfur Reconstruction and Development Fund and from international aid sources.
- 19.2. Reevaluate, reassess, rehabilitate, and reactivate existing development projects.

20. Updating studies prepared for the reconstruction and development of Darfur

- 20.1. The Parties agree to update the studies that have already been prepared in accordance with the internationally required standards, to assess the development needs, priorities, and costs in Darfur Region/States, through a joint committee by the Parties, in cooperation with donors, provided that the committee submits its report before the donor conference is held.

21. Sources of exclusive revenue for the Government of Darfur Region/States: The Government of Darfur Region/States shall have the following exclusive sources of revenue:

- 21.19.Revenue of state/regional projects and investments;
- 21.20.Share of the region/states from oil revenue and revenue of other resources;
- 21.21.Central support, grants, and foreign aid through the national government;
- 21.22.Domestic and foreign loans and borrowing in accordance with the credit rating and in line with the national economic policy;
- 21.23.Any other taxes and sources of revenue that do not contravene with the taxing power of the national government.

22. Natural Resources

- 22.1.The Sudanese people shall own the natural resources found on and under its soil. The people of the regions/states in which such resources are found or extracted shall have special rights that must be met according to specific agreements and percentages thereon.

23. Management of Natural Resources

- 23.1.The regions/states shall be a genuine partner with the federal government in managing natural resources extracted from their lands throughout all the phases of allotment, awarding, contracting, production, and marketing. The regions/states shall hold primary responsibility for the preservation of their environment and shall be entitled to impose conditions to ensure its environmental integrity and that extraction processes do not encroach on the health of citizens.
- 23.2.The federal government and governments of the regions/states shall pay heed to the rights of future generations in the arrangements for and allocation of natural resource extraction by investing a specific percentage of the revenue of extracted resources for the good of those generations.
- 23.3.The federal government and governments of the regions/states shall be responsible for utilizing natural resources therein and managing them transparently, justly, and fairly.
- 23.4.The federal government and governments of the regions/states shall identify natural resources, the manner and timing of their utilization, issuance of excavation and extraction licenses, negotiation of sales contracts and revenue-sharing with the investing firms, withdrawal of licenses and revocation of contracts, planning of the overall resource development, ensuring workers' health and safety, and environment protection.

24. Status of Current and Future Contracts and Agreements for the Extraction of Natural Resources

- 24.1.The Region of Darfur and other regions/states, in cooperation with the federal government, shall be entitled to review all existing natural resource extraction contracts within their respective territories. Upon review, they shall be entitled to make adjustments to these contracts to ensure the fair and equitable allocation of revenue, as well as sufficient environmental protections.
- 24.2.Regions/states whose natural resources will be extracted shall participate in the negotiation of and approve any new contracts or agreements in relation to the exploration, extraction, and production of natural resources within the borders of their respective regions/states. Any such contracts shall be governed by regulations adopted by the regions/states, in addition to the applicable regulations adopted by the federal government.

24.3. When allotting public lands in Darfur or granting utilization concessions for the extraction of natural resources, the inhabitants of the land shall be consulted before land utilization and they shall be adequately compensated.

25. Allocation of Revenue Generated from Natural Resources

25.1. The Parties agree to allocate 40% of the nation's net revenue from mineral and petroleum resources located in Darfur to the region for a period of ten years.

25.2. The Darfur Region shall allocate 3% of the revenue from natural resources for local population in areas from which these resources are extracted.

26. Grants and Loans

26.1. The Darfur Region shall be entitled to receive assistance in the form of grants or loans from states and international and regional organizations via the federal government while providing sovereign guarantees.

27. Establishing Darfur Development Bank

27.1. A development bank shall be established in the Darfur Region in accordance with the Central Bank policies.

28. Positive Discrimination

28.1. The principle of positive discrimination shall apply to the Darfur Region/States and other historically marginalized and war-affected regions/states in Sudan when allocating resources to enable them to keep up with other regions/states which are ahead in terms of development and service delivery for citizens.

29. The Darfur Peace Support and Sustainable Development Fund

29.1. The parties agree to establish a peace support fund called the Darfur Peace Support and Sustainable Development Fund, within 60 (sixty days) of the date of signing the Peace Agreement, provided that it fulfils its duties in a period of 10 (ten years) as of the date of its establishment.

29.2. The Parties shall agree on the organizational and functional structure of the Darfur Peace Support and Sustainable Development Fund in accordance with the parameters provided for in the Agreement.

29.3. The Fund shall develop its own regulations, rules of procedures, and decision-making methods under this Agreement.

29.4. The successive governments of Sudan shall commit to seek, along with the international and regional communities, to provide the necessary support for development and reconstruction projects in Darfur.

29.5. The Fund shall have the following functions:

29.5.1. Soliciting domestic and foreign support for funding peace-related projects in Darfur.

CHAPTER 3: JUSTICE, ACCOUNTABILITY, AND RECONCILIATION PROTOCOL

General Principles

1. Respect for international human rights law and international humanitarian law.
2. Adopting transitional justice mechanisms to provide remedies for victims and legal accountability for perpetrators of acts of violence related to the conflicts in Darfur.
3. The pursuit of national, regional, and international justice for genocide, crimes against humanity, and war crimes.
4. Recognition that the pursuit of justice, accountability, and reconciliation precludes the possibility of any amnesty or immunity for perpetrators of genocide, crimes against humanity, or war crimes.
5. The right of victims to have unhindered access to effective justice and redress mechanisms, in particular the right to an adequate, effective, and prompt remedy or reparations for violations of international human rights law and international humanitarian law.
6. The right of victims to have access to education about their rights as victims of domestic violations, human rights violations, and other violations of international humanitarian law.
7. The importance of independent and impartial justice, accountability, and reconciliation, mechanisms, including transitional justice mechanisms, that are consistent with international norms and standards.
8. The unconditional condemnation of atrocities, abuses, and violations of human rights and international humanitarian law committed during the conflicts, and the importance to take all necessary steps to prevent the repetition of such violations.
9. Ensuring that all perpetrators of violations of human rights and international humanitarian law are held accountable pursuant to the jurisdiction of domestic courts, the International Criminal Court, or the Special Court for war crimes in Darfur.
10. Recognition of the special status of women, children, and youth and their issues, as well as the important role of women and youth in the prevention and resolution of conflicts, in transitional justice processes and in peace-building, and the imperative of their equal participation, and full engagement in all efforts for the maintenance of international peace and security, including justice and reconciliation.
11. Children implicated in the conflict, who may have been involved in the commission of crimes under international law, if any, shall be considered victims and treated in accordance with the Convention on the Rights of the Child, Protocol II to the Geneva Convention, the African Charter on Rights and Welfare of the Child, the Beijing Rules, and relevant international juvenile justice and standards of fair trial. In conjunction with UNICEF and other relevant international organizations, the Parties shall work to rehabilitate and reintegrate child soldiers into society.

12. Recognition of the importance of local and indigenous methods of truth-telling, justice, reconciliation, and healing in complementing formal processes of justice and reconciliation, and the inclusion of these mechanisms in the justice process following the settlement of the conflicts.
13. The importance of continuing to undertake legal and institutional reforms to strengthen the rule of law, and to establish relevant mechanisms thereto in accordance with the international standards.
14. Following the example of other African and international experiences and best practices regarding the principles of accountability, reconciliation, truth and justice, and historical memorialization in response to what occurred in Darfur.
15. The review of public services to identify and remove individuals who perpetrated abuses and violations of human rights and international humanitarian law to curb impunity, build confidence, and strengthen the rule of law in Darfur.
16. Provision of security and full protection to all citizens.
17. Recognition of wrong doings, accountability, justice, forgiveness, and commitment of non-repetition.
18. Promoting open dialogue as an appropriate means to achieve lasting reconciliation in Darfur.
19. Reforming Sudan's justice sector to ensure an independent and impartial judiciary that reflects and reinforces diversity at the federal, regional, state, and local levels without distinction.
20. The National Judiciary
 - 20.1. Except for crimes that amount to violations of international criminal law and the crimes prescribed within the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court, the Special Court for Darfur, and the issues reserved for the Truth and Reconciliation Committees, Sudanese courts shall exercise their authority and jurisdiction as prescribed by law.
 - 20.2. The domestic courts within the national judicial system of Sudan shall refer all cases outside of their jurisdiction to other competent justice mechanisms, namely: The Special Court for Darfur, traditional justice mechanisms, and the Truth and Reconciliation Committee.
21. Truth and Reconciliation
 - 21.1. The Parties agree that promoting reconciliation among the peoples of Darfur represents one of the overarching objectives of this Agreement and that is to be achieved by addressing the root causes of the conflicts, promoting measures to alleviate these causes, and supporting mechanisms and processes that will facilitate forgiveness and the reestablishment of social harmony. The Parties further recognize that the marginalization of the people of Darfur is one of the key root causes of conflict that this Agreement seeks to address.
 - 21.2. The Parties agree that there should be a comprehensive truth and reconciliation process aimed at, among other things:
 - 21.2.1. Ensuring the provision of appropriate conditions for social and peaceful reconciliation among components of the society.
 - 21.2.2. Rebuilding and strengthening relationships between the components of society as - well as promoting coexistence, cooperation, and social solidarity in Darfur.

- 21.2.3. Eradicating tribal and regional polarization and preventing ethnically-motivated fighting among tribes.
- 21.2.4. Establishing a culture of peace in accordance with the values and the traditional cultural heritage.
- 21.2.5. Providing formal and informal apologies, individually and collectively, to the victims of war.

22. The Truth and Reconciliation Committee (TRC)

- 22.1. The Parties agree to establish a Truth and Reconciliation Committee within 60 (sixty days) of the date of signing this Agreement, which shall:
 - 22.1.1. Identify and assess the root causes of conflicts in Darfur.
 - 22.1.2. Investigate violations, crimes, and human rights abuses including violations of economic, social, environmental, and cultural rights committed since June 1989.
 - 22.1.3. Address issues of impunity and build confidence and a culture of peace and reconciliation.
 - 22.1.4. Undertake a comprehensive analysis to determine the causes, nature, and extent of the conflicts, including the extent of international humanitarian law and human rights law violations and the motives of the perpetrators.
 - 22.1.5. Determine whether such violations were the result of deliberate planning by the state or state actors, political organizations, the armed struggle movements, or other groups or individuals.
 - 22.1.6. Perform any other tasks or activities related to truth and reconciliation.
- 22.2. The Parties agree that the TRC shall commence operations within 60 (sixty days) from the date of its establishment, and shall continue its operations for a period no less than 10 (ten years) from the date of its first day of operation, unless it completes its duties fully.
- 22.3. The Truth and Reconciliation Committee shall have headquarters in the capitals of the states of Darfur and Khartoum, and an office in every community affected by the conflicts, as needed.
- 22.4. The TRC shall be composed of the following:
 - 22.4.1. The TRC shall be composed of 11 members;
 - 22.4.2. Each Party shall select 5 members, in addition to one person agreed upon by the Parties to act as chairperson of the committee;
 - 22.4.3. Each Party shall select at least one woman on the committee;
 - 22.4.4. Individuals appointed to the TRC shall be persons of high moral and professional integrity, and regarded as impartial by the Darfur population;
 - 22.4.5. The TRC members shall be independent and have extensive experience in human rights, and/or transitional justice and/or truth and reconciliation committees.
- 22.5. In addition to any further competencies determined by the Parties, the TRC shall have the following competencies:
 - 22.5.1. Provide an opportunity for the victims and perpetrators of human rights violations as well as other people to share their experiences, establish a common understanding of the past, facilitate genuine healing within communities, promote reconciliation, and prevent future atrocities;
 - 22.5.2. Receive statements and testimonies from victims, witnesses, local communities, interest groups, persons directly or indirectly involved in events, or any other group or individual;
 - 22.5.3. Undertake investigations and research, including the powers to call persons to

- 22.5.3. speak before the TRC, to collect relevant evidence, to conduct the necessary interviews, and undertake any other measures or inquiries it deems useful to perform its mandate;
- 22.5.4. Hold hearings;
- 22.5.5. Engage in activities it views as appropriate to advance community reconciliation;
- 22.5.6. Store collected evidence in an agreed-upon location provided with the necessary safety measures to protect victims and witnesses;
- 22.5.7. Accurate and comprehensive record and documentation of all crimes and forms of violations, as well as effective systems for managing documentation to facilitate the recovery of information;
- 22.5.8. In the interest of preventing further psychological or emotional harm to victims, and to encourage witnesses to give their testimonies, the TRC will ensure that victims and witnesses receive support from a professional team of psychologists. Special procedures shall be introduced to protect child witnesses and victims;
- 22.5.9. The TRC shall not have the authority to grant amnesty of any kind, unless approved by victims and in a fashion that facilitates its work, promotes community reconciliations and heals the wounds caused by the conflict in Darfur;
- 22.5.10. The Parties shall determine the full scope of the investigative semi-judicial powers of TRC; and
- 22.5.11. The TRC shall recommend measures towards strengthening and solidifying a comprehensive and lasting peace in Darfur and shall submit its findings and recommendations periodically to the government of Darfur region/states. The TRC shall submit its reports with recommendations to take legal, political, or administrative measures based on the findings of its investigations. The report shall remove all confidential personally-identifiable information, and shall be made public on a large-scale.
- 22.6. The Parties shall request the assistance of the international community in providing the necessary financial and technical support for the work of the TRC. The Government of Sudan shall ensure that the TRC receives adequate funds, appropriate facilities and appropriately qualified national and international staff to assist it in carrying out its functions. The funding necessary for the initiation of TRC shall be provided.
- 22.7. The Parties shall ensure the prevention of interference in the work of the TRC, intimidation or influence of its members and staff, and the infringement of its affiliates, property, assets, and facilities, and permit them to function independently. The TRC shall adopt its internal bylaws, which shall be simple, publicly accessible, and informed by best practices gathered through collaboration with international organizations and experts in international law. The TRC shall cooperate and coordinate with other mechanisms identified by this Agreement.

23. Traditional Justice Mechanisms

- 23.1. Traditional justice mechanisms in Darfur shall be empowered to penalize individuals who committed offenses related to the conflict or to the perpetuation of intra-tribal and inter-tribal conflicts. The jurisdiction of traditional justice mechanisms shall include all offenses related to the conflicts that fall outside the jurisdiction of the ICC, the Special Court for Darfur Crimes, the national judiciary of Sudan, and the Truth and Reconciliation Committee.
- 23.2. Traditional justice mechanisms will establish diverse and appropriate penalties that reflect the gravity of the offenses and promote reconciliation, restitution, and compensation for the victims without prejudice to the jurisdiction of the Compensation and Reparations Fund.

- 23.3. The accused will have the right to plea bargain in exchange for the possibility of a reduced sentence from a traditional justice mechanism. Such a plea bargain may include public written or oral apologies.
- 23.4. In the interest of witness protection, severe penalties shall be imposed upon those who threaten or commit violence against any witnesses in traditional proceedings.
- 23.5. Unpaid community service shall be promoted as a favored penalty, particularly for those who make public apologies.
- 23.6. A committee shall be established to observe and monitor the fulfilment of unpaid community service obligations.
- 23.7. Traditional justice mechanisms shall refer all cases outside of their jurisdiction to other competent justice mechanisms, including the Special Court for Darfur Crimes, the national judiciary of Sudan, and the Truth and Reconciliation Committee.
- 23.8. Traditional justice mechanisms shall exercise traditional competencies and shall employ both customary substantive laws and customary procedural rules.
- 23.9. Respecting the due process rights of the accused and providing timely justice to victims shall be a constant consideration at all stages of proceedings within the traditional justice mechanisms.
- 23.10. The accused has the right to seek a lawyer.
- 23.11. Free legal aid shall be provided to the victims and to the defendant for an effective defense in all cases brought before traditional justice mechanisms.
- 23.12. Local and regional leaders and tribal elders shall oversee the functions of traditional justice mechanisms. Judges and members of justice mechanisms shall be persons of high integrity.
- 23.13. The Parties shall consult local and regional leaders and civil administrations on how to bestow an official character to traditional justice mechanisms in the national justice system.

24. The International Criminal Court

- 24.1. The Parties acknowledge their preparedness for full and unlimited cooperation with the ICC concerning persons for whom arrest warrants have been issued. This includes, among other things, facilitating the appearance of those wanted before the ICC and committing to Security Council Resolution 1593 of 2005, which referred the Darfur situation to the ICC.
- 24.2. The Parties shall provide ICC prosecutors and investigators with easy access to victims, witnesses, and investigation sites, and shall allow ICC personnel to freely travel throughout Sudan's roads, waterways, and airspace at all times.
- 24.3. The Parties shall not interfere with the investigations and trials conducted by the ICC and shall ensure the protection and safety of all prosecutors, victims, and witnesses.
- 24.4. The Parties pledge that all persons subject to ICC warrants, standing trial at the ICC, or convicted by the ICC shall be immediately removed from any elected or appointed government positions and shall be unable to hold any such positions until their removal from ICC warrants, the dismissal or dropping of charges against them, or their being found not-guilty by the ICC.

25. Special Court for Darfur Crimes

- 25.1. The Parties agree to establish a special tribunal for crimes that took place in Darfur within 90 (ninety days) of the signing of this Agreement. The work of the tribunal shall continue for 10 (ten years) from the date of its establishment, unless it has completed its work before this specified period.

- 25.2. The Court shall be composed of Sudanese judges recognized for their competence and integrity and appointed by the head of the judiciary.
- 25.3. An independent prosecutor for the Special Court for Darfur Crimes shall be appointed by the Attorney General upon the approval of the Parties to the Agreement.
- 25.4. The Special Court for Darfur Crimes shall have the jurisdiction to prosecute genocide, crimes against humanity, war crimes and gross violations of international human rights and humanitarian law since 2002.
- 25.5. The Special Court shall define its headquarters and it may establish courts in any of the areas of Darfur.
- 25.6. A team of experts and specialists from the African Union shall monitor the court's procedures to ensure proceedings are conducted in accordance with the rules of justice and fairness set forth in international law.
- 25.7. The Special Court for Darfur Crimes shall apply Sudanese criminal law and international criminal law in relation to war crimes, crimes against humanity, and genocide.
- 25.8. The Government of Sudan commits to ensuring access to witnesses, victims, and perpetrators to the Special Court, including those outside Darfur, in coordination with the competent authorities in relevant fields.

26. Amnesty and Immunity

- 26.1. The Government shall commit to the issuance of general amnesty for sentences and warrants issued against political leaders and members of the armed movements due to their membership therein, after the competent bodies undertake the necessary legal review immediately upon signing the Peace Agreement.
- 26.2. The Government shall commit to return property belonging to the organizations and individuals which have been confiscated because of the war, provided that ownership is proven by any means of proof.

27. Memorialization

- 27.1. The Parties agree to establish memorials honoring the victims of the conflicts in Darfur. The memorialization will help provide closure for those who experienced the conflict, and education and awareness-raising for those who did not. Memorialization for victims of the conflict in Darfur may take many forms, including but not limited to annual public ceremonies, museums, documentation centers, or monuments.
- 27.2. The memorials for victims of the conflict in Darfur shall be designed to promote reconciliation, and to demonstrate commitment of the people of Darfur and the Government of Sudan to protecting human rights and preventing the recurrence of violence. The memorial spaces for victims of the conflict in Darfur will also be used as places to engage in civic affairs and education programs related to the conflict and its aftermath.
- 27.3. The Parties agree to engage in popular consultations and dialogue with all levels of society to identify collective goals for the memorialization project. Consultations may take many forms including meetings, feasibility studies, and needs assessments. Consultations shall focus particularly on the view of individuals most affected by the conflict.

CHAPTER 4: COMPENSATION AND REPARATIONS PROTOCOL

General Principles

1. Victims of the conflict in Darfur shall have the right to have unimpeded access to effective justice and redress mechanisms, including the right to an adequate, effective, and prompt remedy or reparation for damages arising from the conflict in Darfur and for violations of international human rights law and international humanitarian law.
2. Victims of the conflict in Darfur shall have the right to reparations in the form of compensation, restitution, rehabilitation, and/or satisfaction, and commemoration.
3. All individuals and communities in Darfur who suffered direct or indirect damage as a result of the conflict in Darfur or other grave human rights violations during the conflict in Darfur shall have a right to reparations.
4. Victims of the conflict in Darfur shall have guaranteed access to the necessary knowledge and information related to their rights as victims of violations of human rights, international humanitarian law, and other relevant international laws, including their right to reparations.
5. Reparations awarded to victims of the conflict in Darfur shall be designed to acknowledge their suffering, repair their losses, and restore the dignity, security, and stability of victims and their communities.
6. The Parties shall act in accordance with international obligations and practices regarding property rights, compensation, and reparations, including all such obligations towards IDPs and refugees.
7. Without prejudice to the principle of positive discrimination as set forth in the Peace Agreement, distribution of humanitarian aid, the restitution of resources and property, and the award of compensation and reparations in accordance with this Agreement, shall take place without discrimination on the basis of gender, language, tribe, ethnicity, religion, party affiliation, geographic location, status as a displaced or formerly displaced person/refugee, or any other basis.
8. The resolutions and instruments of the commissions and implementation mechanisms created through the Peace Agreement shall be deemed legitimate documents recognized by the official state departments.
9. Neither the award nor the initiation of proceedings for compensation or restitution shall limit or prejudice other means of restitution for property or other damages.
10. For purposes of the Peace Agreement, the term “victims of the conflict in Darfur” shall mean:
 - 10.1. Individuals and groups affected by the conflict in Darfur, including male and female survivors of rape, victims of physical, mental, and psychological injuries or those who lost their property or whose basic rights were violated.
 - 10.2. Parentless children.
 - 10.3. Unaccompanied children.
 - 10.4. Separated children.

- 10.5.Immediate family or dependents of persons who suffered harm as defined in Paragraph (10.1).
- 10.6.Non-combatants who suffered harm while intervening to assist persons in distress or to prevent victimization.

11. Rights Related to Compensation, Restitution and Reparations

- 11.1.All victims of the conflict in Darfur shall have an equal right to seek compensation for the losses and damages suffered by them or their families as a result of the Darfur conflict or of other arbitrary or illegal actions that occurred during the conflict in Darfur.
- 11.2.Reparations shall include, but not be limited to, the right to seek compensation for lost property, lost livelihood, death in the family, personal injury, and other trauma or damages, whether psychological or physical, resulting from the conflict in Darfur.
- 11.3.Individuals shall have the right to seek restoration of property or compensation for their lost or seized property resulting from the conflict in Darfur.
- 11.4.Communities have a collective right to pursue property restitution or compensation for claims regarding communal property, villages, farms and Hawakeer [traditional land].
- 11.5.Individual and community property restitution or compensation claims shall not be mutually exclusive.
- 11.6.Individuals and communities have the right to restitution of lands lost resulting from the conflict in Darfur.
- 11.7.Individuals and communities have the right to pursue compensation for environmental damages, land degradation, or the damage of property resulting from the conflict, including environmental damages or deterioration resulting from displacement and neglect.
- 11.8.All persons affected by the conflict in Darfur have the right to have restored to them any housing, land, and/or property of which they were arbitrarily or unlawfully deprived, or to be compensated adequately for the loss of their housing, land, and/or property, in accordance with international principles, the Peace Agreement provisions and traditional norms. Accordingly:
 - 11.8.1.Assets and property confiscated and looted from individuals, institutions and communities in Darfur shall be returned or restituted to their rightful owners, and in cases where the return of such property is impossible, a just compensation shall be provided.
 - 11.8.2.Displaced persons and refugees who were displaced because of the conflict in Darfur shall enjoy this right whether they choose to return to their places of origin or not.
- 11.9.No individual or group may be stripped of the traditional and historic right in land ownership or access to water, unless consulted or provided with fair compensation.

12. Compensation and Reparations Fund

- 12.1.The Parties agree to establish the Compensation and Reparations Fund in Darfur within 90 (ninety days) of the date of signing this Agreement to receive and address compensation and reparation decisions issued by relevant bodies.
- 12.2.The Parties shall agree on the organizational and functional structure of the Compensations and Reparations Fund in accordance with the parameters set forth in the Agreement.
- 12.3.The Fund shall make its own regulations, rules, procedures, and decision-making methods.

- 12.4. Women shall comprise at least 40 percent of the functional structure of the Fund.
- 12.5. The Compensation and Reparations Fund in Darfur shall have the competency to implement resolutions on the dues and compensation issued by relevant parties to the benefit of beneficiaries.
- 12.6. The Fund's procedures shall be simple, accessible, transparent, enforceable, free of charge, and takes into consideration age, gender and persons with disability.
- 12.7. The Fund's procedures shall be made publicly available within one year of the signing of the Peace Agreement.
- 12.8. All forms of documents issued by competent bodies shall be admissible before the Compensations and Reparations Fund, after examining and verifying their authenticity, including but not limited to:
 - 12.8.1. Documents;
 - 12.8.2. Testimony by traditional and local leaders;
 - 12.8.3. Testimony by other witnesses to prove entitlement to compensation; and
 - 12.8.4. Any other evidentiary documents recognized by the relevant commissions and mechanisms.
- 12.9. Resolutions to award compensation and reparations issued by the relevant mechanisms to the Compensations and Reparations Fund shall include:
 - 12.9.1. Monetary compensation;
 - 12.9.2. Medical and psychological rehabilitation;
 - 12.9.3. Legal assistance and social services;
 - 12.9.4. Creating public spaces, memorials, museums and other places of memorialization and commemoration; and
 - 12.9.5. Any other traditional forms of compensation.
- 12.10. The Fund shall have a public record.
- 12.11. [The Fund shall] develop a table for awarding the timely compensation payments on the basis of financial principles that require awarding financial compensation proportionate to the damage and loss suffered by the victim. Women, men, children and persons with special needs shall be treated equally when implementing the payments.
- 12.12. The Fund's staff shall have relevant experience in the fields in which the Fund operates, including human rights and financial and legal issues.
- 12.13. The Darfur Peace Support and Sustainable Development Fund shall fund activities of the Compensations and Reparations Fund in Darfur for a period of 10 (ten years).
- 12.14. The Fund may receive assistance from national, regional and international organizations and NGOs in its field of work.
- 12.15. The Fund shall cooperate and coordinate with other commissions established pursuant to this Agreement, especially the Commission for the Return of IDPs and Refugees, the Development and Reconstruction Commission, the Lands and Hawakeer Commission, the Truth and Reconciliation Committee, the Darfur Special Court for War Crimes, and the mechanisms of traditional justice.
- 12.16. Regular revision shall be undertaken to ensure the optimal use and distribution of funds allocated to compensate victims, in accordance with the financial procedures applicable in such cases, including the principles of equality of gender and age.
- 12.17. All necessary measures to maintain the independence and integrity of the Compensation and Reparations Fund shall be taken.
- 12.18. The Parties agree to establish a fund to care for the affairs of martyrs and the wounded in Darfur within ninety (90) days of the date of signing this Agreement, provided that the federal government contributes to its financing and seeks to solicit money from inside and outside Sudan.

CHAPTER 5: INTERNALLY DISPLACED PERSONS AND REFUGEES PROTOCOL

1. Definitions: Unless the context suggests otherwise, the following words and terms shall have the definitions provided herein:
 - 1.1. Internally displaced persons (IDPs): shall mean all persons who have been forced or compelled to flee their homes or places of habitual residence as a result of the conflicts in Darfur, and who have not crossed an internationally recognized State border;
 - 1.2. Refugees: shall mean persons or groups of persons who have been forced or compelled to flee or to leave their homes or places of habitual residence as a result of the conflicts in Darfur and who have crossed an internationally recognized State border;
 - 1.3. Displaced persons: shall mean all internally displaced Sudanese men and women who are living outside of IDP camps because of the war;
 - 1.4. Residents on lands of others: people illegally living on others' lands after the outbreak of war in Darfur in 2002.

2. General Principles
 - 2.1. The Parties shall be bound to all international agreements and treaties related to displaced persons and refugees ratified by the Government of Sudan;
 - 2.2. The human rights of displaced persons shall be fully respected and guaranteed under international and national laws, whether during the voluntary return, resettlement, or thereafter;
 - 2.3. The Parties shall pay special attention to protecting internally displaced and refugee women, children, and all other vulnerable groups from all forms of harassment, exploitation, and sexual- or gender-based violence;
 - 2.4. IDPs and refugees shall enjoy the rights to voluntary return, citizenship, identity, participation, ownership, and housing, as set forth in this Agreement;
 - 2.5. IDPs and refugees shall enjoy the same human rights and fundamental freedoms of any citizen in Sudan, including the right to move freely and reside anywhere on Sudanese territory;
 - 2.6. Aid for conflicts-affected persons shall be distributed without discrimination based on gender, language, race, ethnicity, religion, party affiliation, geographic location, color, or any other discriminatory grounds.
 - 2.7. The Parties shall adhere to the following principles and rights of return:
 - 2.7.1. All IDPs and refugees shall have the right to make an informed decision for the voluntary return to their place of origin, homes, or to places or areas of their habitual residence; they shall also have the right to resettle to other places of their choosing, in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, especially those related to the necessary conditions of return;
 - 2.7.2. The Government of Sudan shall commit to accepting the return of refugees who have left Sudanese territory, including those who have been accorded temporary protection by third countries;
 - 2.7.3. The Parties shall adhere to the principle of non-refoulement, and IDPs and refugees shall thus not be subject to forced return or resettlement in any place where their life, safety, liberty, and/or health would be at risk;
 - 2.7.4. The Parties and the international community shall endeavor to ensure the right of safe return for IDPs and refugees and to be free from violence, harassment,

- intimidation, coercion, confiscation of property, or forced resettlement;
- 2.7.5. The Parties agree that nomadic routes shall be open and secure, in particular during the return of IDPs and refugees to their homes of origin. The Parties shall review the changes of such routes and find alternatives if necessary;
- 2.7.6. Rights and privileges of IDPs and refugees to citizenship and participation shall not be affected due to their status as IDPs or refugees, and their rights and privileges shall be fully restored and guaranteed in Sudan;
- 2.7.7. It shall be prohibited to discriminate against IDPs and refugees or prevent them from participating in government or electing officials. IDPs and refugees shall enjoy the right to participate fully and equally in public affairs at all levels and have equal access to public services;
- 2.7.8. The Government of Sudan shall provide IDPs and refugees with all documents necessary for the exercise of their legal rights, including passports, birth certificates, and title deeds;
- 2.7.9. The Parties are committed to achieving the successful return of all IDPs and refugees under peaceful and secure conditions;
- 2.7.10. “IDPs and refugees,” as defined by this Agreement shall be the only persons eligible to receive aid, support, and other benefits of the voluntary return and resettlement programs under this Agreement.

3. Property, Housing, and Compensation Rights

- 3.1. All IDPs and refugees shall enjoy the right to voluntary return to their homes, lands, and property, provided that they be fairly compensated for their losses of homes, lands, or property;
- 3.2. IDPs and refugees shall enjoy all rights to property, ownership of housing, the freedom of movement and residence, and compensation and reparations, as stipulated in this Agreement;
- 3.3. If the return of IDPs, refugees, and displaced persons to their homes or lands, or the restoration of their property is impossible, they shall have the right to receive fair compensation for their loss and the psychological damages resulting from forced displacement. The compensation shall be paid by the Compensations and Reparations Fund in accordance with international principles and the right of voluntary return for all IDPs and refugees.

4. Suitable Conditions for Return

- 4.1. With the assistance of the concerned international and domestic institutions, the Parties agree to create the political, economic, social, and security conditions conducive to the voluntary return and acceptable reintegration of IDPs and refugees, without giving preference to any particular group. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to:
- 4.1.1. Security and safety of IDPs and refugees and being free from the risk of harassment, intimidation, persecution or discrimination, both during and after voluntary return, local integration, or resettlement;
- 4.1.2. The right to free movement and choice of residence;
- 4.1.3. Demining of areas of return and access routes to markets, schools, health services, sanitation, and any other place;
- 4.1.4. Restituting property lost due the war to IDPs and refugees, in accordance with the agreed provisions;
- 4.1.5. Constructing adequate shelters in the return villages and areas of voluntary return,

- as well as the necessary health and education infrastructure;
- 4.1.6. Rehabilitating damaged property, public facilities, farms, pastures, and agrarian lands, etc.;
 - 4.1.7. Evacuating illegal occupants of others' homes, lands, and property in areas of return;
 - 4.1.8. Guaranteed subsistence for all returnees, especially food, potable water, and health supplies;
 - 4.1.9. Providing IDPs and refugees with accurate information on existing conditions inside areas to which they would return to ensure that they can make informed voluntary decisions about return;
 - 4.1.10. The Parties shall work with the international community to provide all possible assistance to IDPs, refugees and war-affected persons to enable the returning families and individuals to reestablish their lives and livelihoods in local communities. This assistance shall include, but not be limited to, short-term repatriation funding, ensuring the continuity of humanitarian aid throughout the return and resettlement period, rebuilding damaged or destroyed infrastructure, building new roads and infrastructure in rural areas, rehabilitating local agrarian lands, and providing education and job training programs;
 - 4.1.11. The Parties shall refrain from attacking, intimidating, or harassing IDPs, refugees or returnees in any way at all times. The human rights of IDPs, refugees and returnees shall be fully respected, with special considerations, protections, and processes for vulnerable groups such as women, children, the elderly, and persons with disabilities;
 - 4.1.12. The Government of Sudan and international partners shall ensure the reconstruction and restoration of permanent housing and other property of IDPs and refugees planning to return or be resettled.

5. Humanitarian Aid

- 5.1. IDPs and refugees shall receive urgent humanitarian assistance, including access to basic amenities such as food, potable water, medical care, adequate sanitation, shelter, education, right to work, and protection during the time of their displacement and upon their return;
- 5.2. Certain IDPs and refugees, such as children, expectant mothers, mothers with young children, female heads of household, persons with disabilities, and elderly persons, shall be entitled to protection and assistance required by their condition and to treatment which pays heed to their special needs;
- 5.3. In areas under their respective control, the Parties shall establish administrative bodies to monitor and facilitate delivery of humanitarian assistance to IDPs. These administrative bodies shall work with the UNAMID/ a third party, relevant international and domestic agencies, the Ceasefire Committee and the Joint Humanitarian Committee to ensure the security of beneficiaries and humanitarian workers, staff and their equipment, tools, and machines, as well as the safety of commodities, services, and humanitarian agencies' project areas.

6. Resettlement and Repatriation Arrangements

- 6.1. The Parties shall introduce a comprehensive resettlement and repatriation strategy with the following objectives:
 - 6.1.1. Ensuring that IDPs and refugees fully enjoy all the same rights and fundamental freedoms established for all citizens;

- 6.1.2. Reintegrating IDPs and refugees and creating the conditions that will allow them to participate fully in the economic, social, political, and cultural development of the country;
- 6.1.3. Fulfilling genuine reconciliation through promoting a culture of peace and peaceful coexistence in the resettlement areas, and at the national and regional/state levels, based on participation, mutual tolerance and respect.

7. International Support

- 7.1. The Parties shall request the international community to provide financial, technical, and material support and resources to ensure that the voluntary return and resettlement processes takes place fully, efficiently, and with respect to the dignity and safety of returnees;
- 7.2. The Parties shall commit to granting national and international aid organizations full land, air, and sea access to all territories and IDPs to implement the voluntary return and resettlement programs, within the framework of ratified international agreements, and in accordance with national laws;
- 7.3. The Parties shall refrain from levying taxes on workers, goods, or services provided by foreign governments or domestic or international aid organizations, within the framework of national laws and regulations and international agreements;
- 7.4. The Parties shall commit to protecting the safety and security of all foreign government staffs and employees, as well as national and international aid workers and equipment thereof.

8. Internally Displaced Persons and Refugees Commission

- 8.1. The Parties agree to establish an IDP and Refugees Commission (IDPRC) within 60 (sixty days) of the date of signing this agreement to oversee, administer, and facilitate the voluntary return and resettlement, with the assistance of the international community, UNHCR and other relevant UN agencies and international organizations;
- 8.2. Procedures of the IDPRC shall be made available to the public within 6 (six months) of the date of signing the Peace Agreement, and it shall remain so for 10 (ten years);
- 8.3. The Parties shall agree on the organizational and functional structure of the IDPRC in accordance with the parameters provided for in this agreement;
- 8.4. The IDPRC shall develop its own regulations, rules of procedures and decision-making methods;
- 8.5. Without prejudice to the right to appeal, decisions of IDPRC in Darfur shall be binding.
- 8.6. The IDPRC shall exercise the following competencies and functions:
 - 8.6.1. The IDPRC shall have the competence to deal with Sudanese IDPs and refugees displaced due to the conflicts in Darfur as they are defined in this Agreement.
 - 8.6.2. The IDPRC, in coordination and cooperation with relevant national institutions and international organizations, shall introduce, implement, monitor, oversee, and evaluate strategies, plans and programs to ensure the sustainable voluntary return of displaced persons and refugees;
 - 8.6.3. The IDPRC in Darfur shall establish local committees for claims that shall be comprised of local, traditional, and community leaders, including representatives of IDPs, refugees, and women. The local committees shall investigate compensation-related claims and other means of reparations, and submit their reports to the IDPRC in Darfur;
 - 8.6.4. The IDPRC shall establish a fair valuation mechanism for the purpose of receiving claims from victims to receive compensation and other means of reparations for harm resulting from the conflict in Darfur.

- 8.6.5. Collect data concerning the numbers of IDPs and refugees willing to return, areas of origin, distance from the border, availability of housing, economic and social infrastructure in the areas of return and resettlement, and projected needs for rehabilitation/reconstruction to ascertain the most effective means for the return of displaced persons;
- 8.6.6. Institute a public awareness campaign among IDPs and refugees to help them understand their rights, settlement options, and prevailing conditions in their original home areas, which will help them make an informed decision on whether to return;
- 8.6.7. Create and monitor entry points, and transit and reception centers.
- 8.6.8. Design mechanisms to monitor human rights conditions in areas of return.
- 8.6.9. Implement programs to address the special needs of vulnerable groups, especially unsupported, separated, and unaccompanied children among the uprooted populations of IDPs and refugees;
- 8.6.10. Implement programs to reconstruct and repair homes destroyed, damaged in coordination with the relevant commission;
- 8.6.11. Implement programs to rebuild public utilities and other infrastructure necessary for the durable rehabilitation of local communities, in coordination with relevant commissions;
- 8.6.12. Facilitate the reunion of unaccompanied and separated minors with their parents and families;
- 8.6.13. Work with local authorities and traditional community leaders to establish proof of identity when necessary;
- 8.6.14. Refer returnees with property restitution claims to the relevant commissions;
- 8.6.15. Conduct regular surveys and evaluations of the situation of IDPs and refugees;
- 8.6.16. Work with UNAMID/ a third party, UN agencies, relevant national and international agencies, and other international and national aid organizations to ensure proper protection and dignified treatment of IDPs and refugees during the process of return and reintegration or resettlement;
- 8.6.17. The IDPRC may submit recommendations to relevant parties to provide urgent assistance to victims and those in need among IDPs and refugees, provided that such assistance does not adversely impact their rights to due compensations from IDPRC.

9. Objectives of Resettlement Arrangements

- 9.1. In all of its activities and functions, the IDPRC shall pursue a strategy for the return and reintegration of IDPs and refugees and verify that:
 - 9.1.1. The needs of residents, IDPs and refugees are taken into account to prevent abuses and resentment;
 - 9.1.2. Participation of IDPs and refugees in management of the voluntary return and reintegration processes; and
 - 9.1.3. Schedule the voluntary return, reintegration, and resettlement processes according to specific timetables, to build a durable and eco-friendly peace.

CHAPTER 6: DEVELOPMENT OF THE NOMADS AND HERDEERS SECTOR IN THE DARFUR REGION PROTOCOL

General Principles

1. Endeavoring to realize a just and comprehensive peace to end the war and address the Sudanese issue and its impact, taking into consideration provisional preferential measures for war-affected and least developed areas as well as most afflicted groups including nomads and shepherds.
2. Safeguarding the rights of nomads, herders, and farmers to use the land and determine routes to prevent tribal friction, achieve stability, preserve agricultural soil and preserving the sustainability and development of natural rangelands.
3. Introducing alternative policies, legislation, institutions, and mechanisms which meet the needs of herders and nomads in the exercise of their right to use land and natural resources.
4. Recognizing the role of community-based management as a long-standing management legacy that played a significant role in the maintenance of civil peace, local dispute resolution, environment conservation, and addressing issues of relations between land owners and beneficiaries thereof.
5. The activity of nomads and herders extends beyond the administrative borders of localities and regions/states, as well as neighboring countries, and as such requires coordination with them and the enactment of flexible laws, legislation, protocols, and administrative systems to accommodate this type of activity.
6. Facilitating and simplifying identification documents for nomads and herders.
7. The Commission for the Development of the Nomads and Herders Sector
 - 7.1. The Parties agreed to establish a commission for the development of the nomads and herders sector in Darfur region/states within 60 (sixty days) of the date of signing this Agreement to develop and improve the nomad and herders sector, work with local authorities and civil administrations to organize the movement of nomads, open routes and regulate relations between farmers and herders.
 - 7.2. The procedures of the Commission for the Development of the Nomads and Herders Sector in Darfur shall be available for the public within 6 (six months) of the date of signing this Agreement.
 - 7.3. The Parties shall agree on the organizational and functional structure of the Commission for the Development of the Nomads and Herders Sector in Darfur in accordance with the parameters provided for in the Agreement.
 - 7.4. The Commission shall develop its regulations, rules of procedures, and decision-making methods.
 - 7.5. The Commission shall be mandated to develop a strategy for the development and improvement of the nomads and herders sector in Darfur Region/States.
 - 7.6. The Commission may seek the assistance of experts to review, introduce corrective measures, and evaluate projects.
 - 7.7. The Commission shall endeavor to coordinate with other relevant commissions and institutions.

- 7.8. The assets of all existing commissions and mechanisms in the Darfur Region/States specialized in the nomads and herders sector shall be transferred to the Commission for the Development of the Nomads and Herders Sector in Darfur in accordance with the applicable administrative and legal procedures.

8. The Commission shall develop strategies to address the following issues:

- 8.1. Organization of nomad movement and opening routes to achieve complementarity between agricultural and pastoral activities and organize the relation between farmers and herders in coordination with local authorities and community-based administration.
- 8.2. Development of livestock by applying technical packages, importing animal breeds to improve species, and adopting quality over quantity standards to save efforts spent on managing large unproductive herds that ruin pastures and destroy the natural environment.
- 8.3. Establishment of service and production centers along nomad routes (Dumur and Sawani) and paving the way for gradual voluntary settlement.
- 8.4. Promotion and development of the processing of animal products by building the capacity of producers in dairy and leather industries to develop production and ensure competition in the market.
- 8.5. Raising awareness of environmental issues in the herder community to curb overgrazing in furtherance of the conservation of the natural environment.
- 8.6. Spread seeds of grassy vegetation along nomad routes to rebuild the natural environment and provide pastures.
- 8.7. Provision of veterinary services via mobile units.
- 8.8. Advancement of the nomad community through education, establishing schools, introducing boarding school systems, and literacy units.
- 8.9. Development of traditional skills in handcrafting fields such as the wool industry and others.
- 8.10. Development of positive values in nomad communities by promoting the spirit of solidarity and collecting popular heritage and literature.
- 8.11. Participation of the nomad community in public affairs by representing them in legislative and executive institutions at all levels of governance.
- 8.12. Building reservoirs, wells, dams, water stations, and groundwater wells along the routes.
- 8.13. These strategies shall be implemented during a 10 (ten year) period divided into two extendable phases as follows:
 - 8.13.1. Phase one between 2020-2025
 - 8.13.2. Phase two between 2026-2030
- 8.14. Projects meeting the objectives of the Commission's strategies shall be prepared and implemented during the two phases according to priority.
- 8.15. The Commission for the Development of the Nomads and Herders Sector in Darfur shall be funded by the Darfur Peace Support and Sustainable Development Fund for a period of 10 (ten years).

CHAPTER 7: LAND AND HAWAKEER PROTOCOL

General Principles

1. Recognizing the traditional rights to the ownership of tribal lands (known as Hawakeer) and the historic rights related to lands and the traditional and customary livestock routes and opportunities to access water.
2. The competent authorities in Darfur (region/ states), in coordination with the federal government and the neighboring regions/states, shall organize the opening of routes across the borders of the Sudanese states, for nomadic shepherds, in order to limit the likelihood of the occurrence of disputes with farmers.
3. The competent authorities shall study, develop, and amend relevant laws to integrate international norms and practices to protect the cultural heritage in Darfur, especially those related to lands and property.
4. Traditional mechanisms for the possession of lands in Darfur should be taken into consideration in resolving conflicts arising between components of the society.
5. In the event of a conflict between the Sudanese laws and the traditional land possession system (Hawakeer) in Darfur; the said laws shall be amended to include the rights of the lands (Hawakeer) and their use according to the norms, traditions, and inherited practices of land tenure in Darfur.
6. All IDPs and refugees, as well as all other persons, shall have their rights restored in the lands that were arbitrarily and illegitimately taken away from them. Stripping any individual or group of individuals from their traditional and historic right to ownership of lands and access to water shall only be permissible after conducting consultations or offering compensation to them on a just basis.

7. The Historical Borders of Darfur

- 7.1. The Parties agree on the need to prioritize demarcating borders of Sudan regions, including the historical borders of Darfur, via the National Borders Commission after it is restructured.

8. The Right to Restitution:

- 8.1. The Parties agree to review and revoke the registration of lands which are proven to have been expropriated or forcibly taken after June 1989.
- 8.2. The Parties agree to the right of communities and individuals to the restitution of lands taken away due to the conflict in Darfur.
- 8.3. The right to restitution shall be an individual and collective right. Individuals or communities shall have the right to apply for restoration of their land.
- 8.4. Local communities shall have an independent right in the claims of restituting lands, in regards to collective property (villages, farms and Hawakeer).
- 8.5. Claims of restituting individual property and collective property shall not be mutually exclusive according to law.
- 8.6. Male and female IDPs and refugees, affected by the conflict, shall have the right to restore any houses, lands, or farms that they have been arbitrarily or illegally deprived of, irrespective of their choice to return to their original homes.

- 8.7. All individuals shall be entitled to file claims to the Darfur Lands and Hawakeer Commission within 10 (ten years) from it commencing operations.
- 8.8. The competent authority, in cooperation with civil administration shall take charge of evacuating those residing illegally in the lands of others in Darfur since 2002, after the Darfur Lands Commission issues a decision thereupon.

9. Darfur Lands and Hawakeer Commission

- 9.1. The Parties agree to establish the Darfur Lands and Hawakeer Commission (DLHC) within 60 (sixty days) of the date of signing this agreement to hear and mediate claims of property restitution filed by individuals and communities who lost their lands because of the conflict in Darfur.
- 9.2. The DLHC's procedures shall be made available for the public within 6 (six months) from the date of signing this Agreement.
- 9.3. The Parties shall agree on the organizational and functional structure of the DLHC in accordance with the parameters provided for in the Agreement.
- 9.4. The DLHC shall develop its own regulations, rules of procedures, and decision-making methods.
- 9.5. The judicial authority shall establish a special court for the DLHC with the exclusive power to hear appeals of decisions of the DLHC and to register the ownership of lands as decided by the DLHC to any party to the conflict.
- 9.6. The DLHC shall form local committees for claims, which include local, traditional, and community leaders, including representatives of IDPs, refugees and women, to investigate claims related to compensations and other means of reparations. The committees submit their reports to the DLHC.
- 9.7. The DLHC shall form a mechanism for fair evaluation for purposes of receiving claims from victims to receive compensation and other means of reparations for harm inflicted due to the conflict.
- 9.8. Without prejudice to the right to appeal, the decisions and awards of DLHC shall be binding.

10. DLHC Powers and Competencies

- 10.1. The DLHC shall have the following powers and competencies:
 - 10.1.1. To arbitrate and adjudicate conflicts over rights related to land disputed between the parties to the conflict.
 - 10.1.2. To identify the legitimate owner of disputed land and its value upon submission of a claim. If restitution is not possible for these lands due to their use for the public interest, the claimant shall receive fair compensation for losses or damages.
 - 10.1.3. To undertake all appropriate arrangements to ensure the full and effective participation of IDPs, refugees, local and traditional leaders, women, and all affected individuals of local communities in its procedures, including the investigation of disputed land claims.
 - 10.1.4. To locate and identify sites and establish registers of present and historical uses of land and preserving it.
 - 10.1.5. To assist in registering and issuing land property deeds.
 - 10.1.6. To conduct research regarding land tenure and usage in the geographical area subject to its authority.

- 10.1.7. The DLHC shall launch and manage a general awareness-raising campaign to inform all individuals, who have property restitution claims arising from the conflicts, of their right to submit claims.
- 10.1.8. The DLHC shall undertake a regular assessment of the process of implementing land restitution programs and submit publicly-accessible periodic reports.
- 10.1.9. The DLHC shall address the issue of Sudanese illegally residing on the lands of others in the event of evacuating them, provided that this is conducted in cooperation with relevant parties.
- 10.2. The National Lands Commission and DLHC shall cooperate and coordinate their work in terms of:
 - 10.2.1. Sharing information and decisions made by either entity;
 - 10.2.2. Some tasks of the National Lands Commission, including data collection and research, may be assigned to the DLHC;
 - 10.2.3. Settlement of any issues contradictory to the findings or recommendations of either commission.

11. Funding

- 11.1. The DLHC shall be funded by the Darfur Peace Support and Sustainable Development Fund for a period of 10 (ten years) from the date of this Agreement.
- 11.2. The Parties shall work together to receive assistance from the international community in funding the operations of the DLHC.
- 11.3. The period during which the Government of Sudan shall provide funding to the DLHC shall not be an indication or identification of the mandated term of DLHC.

CHAPTER 8: PERMANENT CEASEFIRE AND FINAL SECURITY AGREEMENT PROTOCOL

Preamble

RECOGNIZING that the core of this agreement is inclusiveness and the involvement of armed groups, political forces, and civil society to become part of the peace process, to play a role therein, and contribute to maintaining this agreement.

MOTIVATED by our deep awareness of the urgent need for final security arrangements that address the root causes of war and build a rapid plan of action to address the humanitarian crisis in Sudan in general and in Darfur in particular and to provide for the necessary relief and aid, rehabilitate, save, protect, and voluntarily resettle IDPs and refugees.

REAFFIRMING the necessity to achieve a just peace and a comprehensive political agreement that enable us to address the issues and consequences of war in Darfur as part of a comprehensive process for all Sudan.

MINDFUL that the history of Sudan has proven that peace cannot be achieved without democratization and that democratization cannot be achieved without peace.

ACKNOWLEDGING the major role played by the martyrs of the Armed Forces, the Rapid Support Forces, security forces, and forces of the armed struggle movements during the struggle for freedom, peace, justice and equality, and in furtherance of national reconciliation, a national day for martyrs shall be created.

6. Integration: means integrating combatants who are fit for military service according to a timeline to be agreed upon after the conclusion of the training and military development period in accordance with the agreed norms and standards.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AND GUIDELINES

7. Purpose and Objectives.

- 7.1. The purpose of this agreement is to be a single comprehensive agreement for all security issues and arrangements for the Darfur Track, including the following matters:
- 7.1.1. Continuation of the Cessation of Hostilities for Humanitarian Purposes;
 - 7.1.2. Permanent ceasefire;
 - 7.1.3. DDR;
 - 7.1.4. Final security arrangements;
 - 7.1.5. Reform, development, and modernization of the security sector.
- 7.2. In furtherance of this purpose, the main objectives of this agreement shall be the following:
- 7.2.1. To provide a clear track for achieving a just, comprehensive, and durable peace for Darfur and all of Sudan;
 - 7.2.2. To create a safe and stable environment to support the comprehensive agreements for peace in Darfur and the wider peace and political transition in Sudan;
 - 7.2.3. To reach a negotiated and comprehensive agreement on security arrangements and sector reforms that are conducive to new final security arrangements in Sudan, in furtherance of durable peace and political transition.
 - 7.2.4. To reform, develop, and modernize the Sudanese military establishment and other security institutions, and to construct a new unified military doctrine in order to improve their capacities, effectiveness, impartiality and professionalism and ensure that their sizes and structures reflect the needs and interests of the Sudanese state and people;
 - 7.2.5. The security arrangements agreement is closely linked with the implementation of the political agreement.

8. Identification of the Parties.

- 8.1. Parties to this agreement are:
- 8.1.1. The Transitional Government of Sudan;
 - 8.1.2. Armed struggle movements in the Darfur Track, consisting of:
 - 8.1.2.1. Sudan Liberation Movement / Army;
 - 8.1.2.2. Justice and Equality Movement;
 - 8.1.2.3. Sudan Liberation Forces Alliance;
 - 8.1.2.4. Sudan Liberation Movement – Transitional Council
 - 8.1.2.5. The Sudanese Alliance.

9. Guiding principles for the final security arrangements, reform, development and modernization of security sector.

- 9.1. Continuation of the Cessation of Hostilities for Humanitarian Purposes is a necessary step for building confidence, confirming the Parties' commitment to pursue a peaceful resolution of the conflicts in Sudan, and continuing and completing negotiations for peace and permanent security arrangements as part of Sudan's political transition;
- 9.2. The Parties shall remain continuously committed to addressing the humanitarian situation in Darfur as a critical and necessary element of the effort to move forward with final security arrangements and security sector reform and development as part of the broader reforms within the Sudanese peace process;
- 9.3. All agreements on and arrangements for the cessation of hostilities or permanent ceasefire, or for security arrangements and all other reforms shall also serve to facilitate or ensure safe, immediate, and unhindered humanitarian access;
- 9.4. The Parties shall create appropriate security conditions for the unimpeded flow of humanitarian assistance and goods;
- 9.5. The Parties agree that achieving a permanent ceasefire through negotiations will result in final security arrangements and reforms, development, and modernization of the military institution and other security services/security sector, and achievement of a durable peace and political transition in Sudan;
- 9.6. Establishing security forces and a single national army trusted by the local communities across Sudan, especially in the conflict areas, is a key element to establishing peace, security, and sustainable development in Sudan;
- 9.7. The Parties agree to reform, develop, and modernize the military establishment and other security services/the security sector, provided that there are short and long-term reforms in furtherance of the objectives and provisions of this agreement, supporting the establishment of a permanent, professional, and independent system to improve their capacity, effectiveness, impartiality, inclusiveness, and professionalism, as well as to strengthen the rule of law in Sudan in accordance with international law and best practices and to establish armed forces that represent the diversity of Sudan and are capable of defending Sudan against foreign enemies and maintaining the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Sudan;
- 9.8. The comprehensive long-term security reforms shall particularly focus on ensuring that the Sudanese armed forces and other security institutions are not loyal to any single party, group, tribe, or region but instead owe allegiance to the state of Sudan.
- 9.9. The Parties shall engage in a transparent and internationally supervised program for the disarmament, demobilization, and reintegration of forces that will eventually lead to the reintegration of combatants and fighters who have not been included in the integration program;
- 9.10. The Parties shall ensure representation of women in structures of the military institution and other security services/security sector and in related decision-making entities, as well as in the reform, development, and modernization of the military establishment and other security services/the security sector.
- 9.11. The Parties shall work together to request from the international community technical, material, and financial assistance necessary for successful implementation of the Cessation of Hostilities for Humanitarian Purposes, a permanent ceasefire, DDR, and peacebuilding;
- 9.12. For purposes of this agreement, the military establishment and security services/the security sector in Sudan shall mean the following:

- 9.12.1. “The military establishment” including the Sudanese Armed Forces and the Rapid Support Forces;
- 9.12.2. The unified Sudanese police forces;
- 9.12.3. The General Intelligence Service;
- 9.13. The Parties commit to promoting geographic and social diversity and employing equal opportunity policies in the membership of the Armed Forces and other security services within the security sector, while applying the principle of positive discrimination in favor of war-affected areas;

10. Phases of the Final Security Arrangements.

- 10.1. Phase One: continuation of the Cessation of Hostilities for Humanitarian Purposes, leading to a permanent ceasefire agreement;
- 10.2. Phase Two: implementation of the permanent ceasefire agreement and other comprehensive security arrangements and implementation of the program of integration in the military establishment institution and other security services;
- 10.3. Phase Three: implementation of the DDR program;
- 10.4. Phase Four: implementation of the reform, development, and modernization plan for the military establishment institution and security services (security sector).

CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES

11. Monitoring and Verification Mechanisms for the Cessation of Hostilities

- 11.1. The Parties agree to continue the Cessation of Hostilities for Humanitarian Purposes leading to a permanent ceasefire agreement;
- 11.2. The Parties shall be committed to the Cessation of Hostilities Agreement signed in Juba on 21 October 2019 until the permanent ceasefire goes into effect while continuing and activating monitoring and verification mechanisms with the Mediation’s presence as a third party.

PERMANENT CEASEFIRE, COMPREHENSIVE SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS AND IMPLEMENTATION OF INTEGRATION PROGRAMS IN THE MILITARY ESTABLISHMENT AND OTHER SECURITY SERVICES

12. Permanent Ceasefire

- 12.1. The Parties shall sign a negotiated permanent ceasefire agreement that is consistent with all of the provisions and stipulations of this agreement. It shall go into force within 72 hours of signing this agreement.

13. Elements required in the permanent ceasefire agreement

- 13.1. The permanent ceasefire agreement shall, among other things, stipulate the following:
 - 13.1.1. Actions prohibited by the Cessation of Hostilities set forth in this agreement;
 - 13.1.2. Identification of acts, activities, or breaches that shall constitute violations to the ceasefire agreement and methods to address these violations;
 - 13.1.3. Forming of specialized command and control mechanisms to undertake all oversight, monitoring, and verification activities necessary to ensure the effective implementation of the permanent ceasefire agreement including expanding the jurisdiction of the Permanent Ceasefire Committee and the Joint High Military Committee for Security Arrangements provided for in this agreement;

- 13.1.4. Clear requirements and procedures to disclose troop locations of both parties and monitor them in the permanent ceasefire phase;
- 13.1.5. Comprehensive procedures to regulate the movement of troops, weapons, provisions, and supplies;
- 13.1.6. The sequencing of procedures and schedules for the implementation of the permanent ceasefire and security arrangements.
- 13.1.7. Request for, coordination with, and facilitation of international aid for the implementation of the ceasefire;
- 13.1.8. Any other issues necessary to support the ceasefire and security arrangements provided for in this agreement.
- 13.2. This agreement shall reflect and include all provisions relevant to the implementation of permanent ceasefire and final security arrangements.

14. General Provisions and Principles of the Permanent Ceasefire

- 14.1. Peace constitutes a key objective for the Sudanese people and it is primarily a national issue that requires the mobilization of political will and public engagement as indispensable prerequisites to the realization of a durable peace. The Parties must further cooperate in upholding and respecting the permanent ceasefire and employ their wisdom to contain and resolve any problems that may arise;
- 14.2. The Parties must, at all times, refrain from any act or acts that may compromise the peace process and create a climate which leads to peace and calm.
- 14.3. Emphasizing that the permanent ceasefire agreement must be clear and free from ambiguity in all its elements;
- 14.4. The permanent ceasefire agreement must ensure freedom of mobility for people, particularly civilians, commodities, and services across Sudan as well as opening border crossings with neighboring countries in accordance with the agreements signed with them and the necessary security measures;
- 14.5. The Parties shall commit to immediately releasing the remaining prisoners of war unless they are indicted in private rights cases as a sign of national reconciliation, in addition to releasing any other persons detained due to the war in furtherance of confidence building measures and searching for missing persons;
- 14.6. The Parties must engage judicial and legal bodies, national organizations and the ICRC in the process of releasing war prisoners and other persons detained due to the war and searching for missing persons;
- 14.7. The Parties must commit to providing and facilitating humanitarian assistance by creating conditions that encourage provision of urgent humanitarian assistance to the homeless, IDPs, refugees, and affected persons and their right to voluntary return to their areas of origin;
- 14.8. The Parties agree to inform commissioned and non-commissioned officers and soldiers of their respective forces of the agreement as a means to promote the permanent ceasefire agreement and to use official media outlets to do so;
- 14.9. The Parties shall abide by the permanent and final ceasefire provided that the forces, as well as forces allied and affiliated with either party, abide by it on all levels;
- 14.10. This agreement shall not include stipulations that could undermine Sudan's sovereignty, territorial integrity, national security, and the unity of its armed forces and security services;

- 14.11. To reach a credible ceasefire that promotes security and builds confidence, these processes shall be undertaken mutually, in incremental steps, and with appropriate security guarantees;
- 14.12. The Parties recognize that the presence of foreign fighters in the ranks of opposition movements or any other armed elements from neighboring countries, if any, in Darfur constitutes a serious threat to peace and security in Darfur in particular and Sudan in general as well as a threat to this agreement;
- 14.13. The Parties agree on a permanent ceasefire between all their forces in fulfilment of a broader goal which is to safeguard the final peace agreement, promote the culture of peace and reconciliation, and build confidence and the new democratic system;
- 14.14. It is essential for the principles of the final ceasefire to be upheld between the Armed Forces, the Rapid Support Forces, and armed struggle movements/ Darfur Track immediately upon signing this agreement;
- 14.15. The Parties comprehend the threat and risk posed by foreign armed elements, if any, to the security and stability of Sudan and neighboring countries;
- 14.16. The Parties acknowledge that the primary responsibility for enforcing law and maintaining public safety falls with a recognized police authority that carries out its duties in accordance with the law and acceptable standards;
- 14.17. The Government of Sudan shall be committed to combating unregulated armed elements.

15. Entry into Force of the Agreement

- 15.1. The permanent ceasefire agreement shall replace the Cessation of Hostilities Agreement and enter into force within 72 hours from the date of signing in accordance with the approved timetables therefor.

16. The Geographic Scope of the Permanent Ceasefire

- 16.1. The geographic scope of the ceasefire shall encompass Darfur and all areas in which the forces of the signatory armed struggle movements are concentrated within Sudan.

17. Permissible Acts

- 17.1. Due to the adverse effects of war, the main principle underlying permissible acts shall be to work to mitigate the effects of war on civilians and affected areas and to mobilize public support for peace. Permissible acts must include the following:
 - 17.1.1. Demining and elimination of military threats must be undertaken in cooperation with, and agreement between, the Parties based on agreed timetables and mechanisms and with the participation of a third party, the Mediation, the United Nations, and guarantors of this agreement;
 - 17.1.2. Development activities such as opening and constructing roads and restoring bridges, crossings, railroads, airports and heliports;
 - 17.1.3. Socioeconomic activities such as assisting the freedom of movement of people, goods and services;
 - 17.1.4. Freedom of movement for unarmed soldiers in civilian attire who are on vacation, on sick leave, or are visiting their families pursuant to an authorization from the competent authority and with the knowledge of the field teams;
 - 17.1.5. Supplying non-combat material, such as food, water, medicine, fuel, lubricating

DISARMAMENT, DEMOBILIZATION AND REINTEGRATION (DDR)

30. Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration (DDR)

30.1. Definitions:

- 30.1.1. Disarmament is the collection, documentation, control, and discarding of small weapons, ammunitions, explosives, and light and heavy weapons from combatants. They are often collected from civilians as well. Disarmament involves developing programs and responsibly managing the weapons;
- 30.1.2. Demobilization is the official dismissal of combatants from armed groups. The first phase of demobilization may range from demobilizing individual combatants at temporary posts to demobilizing large numbers. The second includes providing a support package to the demobilized combatants, which is referred to as social reintegration and housing;
- 30.1.3. Social reintegration is the process through which former combatants receive the status of a civilian citizen and practice a profession or a job to help them secure a permanent stable income. Reintegration is necessarily a social and economic process with a specific timeframe. It mainly takes place in communities at the local level and it is part of the general development of the country. It is a national responsibility and it usually requires foreign assistance in the long run.

30.2. General Principles:

- 30.2.1. The Parties recognize that the goal of DDR is to contribute to creating a safe environment, supporting social stability throughout Sudan in the post-Final Peace Agreement period, especially the war-ravaged areas.
- 30.2.2. The Parties recognize that the DDR process is complicated and involves political, military, security, humanitarian, social, and economic dimensions. The DDR process aims to address post-conflict security problems which may arise as the result of leaving former combatants without livelihoods or support networks, other than their former comrades in arms, during the transition from conflict to peace, and then to development;
- 30.2.3. The Parties recognize that the DDR program shall be implemented within a comprehensive nationwide process of reconciliation and healing, as part of the peacebuilding and confidence-building measures;
- 30.2.4. With the help of a UN third party and other UN agencies, the DDR Commission shall develop plans that include timing and sequencing of DDR phases;
- 30.2.5. The Parties agree to implement DDR efforts to ensure as much security and stability in Sudan as possible, as well as to provide assistance, training and job opportunities for former combatants in the short and long-terms;

30.2.6. The Parties agree that all DDR processes shall be subject to the general principles herein and all other conditions, requirements, and frameworks included in this agreement;

30.2.7. Reintegration programs shall be designed to be sustainable and include monitoring progress and measures for ongoing support based on the needs defined by DDR mechanisms;

30.2.8. The Parties recognize the necessity, during DDR processes, to meet the special needs of children, women, and disabled persons, as a priority. The Government of Sudan shall mobilize specific resources and budgets to meet such special needs of the aforementioned groups at all phases of the DDR.

30.3. Structure of DDR Mechanisms.

30.3.1. At the national level:

30.3.1.1. The DDR High Council;

30.3.1.2. The National DDR Commission.

30.3.2. At the regional level:

30.3.2.1. The Darfur Regional DDR Commission.

30.4. The Parties agree to restructure the DDR High Council and the National DDR Commission within 45 days from the date of the signing of the peace agreement, to ensure the representation of parties to the agreement in the structures of the Council and the Commission.

30.5. DDR High Council.

30.5.1. The Council shall be responsible for developing, supervising, coordinating, and evaluating DDR policies. It shall also coordinate with the DDR Commission at the national level.

30.6. [National] DDR Commission.

30.6.1. The Commission shall conduct a comprehensive assessment of needs and challenges related to DDR at the national and regional levels, including but not limited to, the reintegration of forces of the armed struggle movements and coordination with the DDR High Council;

30.6.2. The Parties shall ensure that the DDR Commission in Sudan is national, independent, and qualified to assume its duties with regard to DDR processes;

30.6.3. The Parties agree to ensure the representation of women in decision-making process related to DDR, to effectively and appropriately meet the needs and interests of women.

30.7. DDR shall be undertaken with care and the process therefor shall proceed as follows:

30.7.1. Raising awareness of and informing commanders and forces affiliated therewith about DDR and the peace process as well as their roles and responsibilities therein;

30.7.2. The Parties shall decide on eligibility criteria for disarmament of the unintegrated combatants;

30.7.3. The Parties shall decide to immediately and unconditionally dismiss and release all combatant children, if any, as well as groups with special needs and former female combatants, provided that they are handed over to the Joint DDR Committee to be reintegrated;

- 30.7.4. The principles of fairness, transparency, equality, and impartiality shall be observed during the social and economic reintegration of former combatants. Furthermore, former combatants shall receive equal treatment, regardless of their past affiliation with any of the movements;
- 30.7.5. Reintegration shall be conducted at a community-level so as to benefit the returnees and local communities;
- 30.7.6. The Parties agree to implement DDR efforts to ensure as much security and stability in Sudan as possible, in addition to the provision of support, training, and job opportunities for former combatants in the short- and long-terms;
- 30.7.7. Reintegration programs shall be designed to be sustainable and include monitoring progress and measures of ongoing support based on the needs defined by DDR mechanisms.

30.8. Darfur Regional DDR Commission.

- 30.8.1. The Parties agree to establish the Darfur Regional DDR Commission within (30) thirty days of the date of restructuring the National DDR Commission;
- 30.8.2. The Parties shall agree upon the organizational and functional structure of the Darfur Regional DDR Commission in accordance with the principles and regulations governing the work of the National DDR Commission;
- 30.8.3. The Commission shall develop its own regulations, rules, procedures, and decision-making processes;
- 30.8.4. The Regional Commission shall work under the supervision of the National DDR Commission;
- 30.8.5. The National Commission and Darfur Regional DDR Commission shall cooperate and coordinate in the following:
 - 30.8.5.1. Exchange of information and decisions made by either one.
 - 30.8.5.2. The National DDR Commission may delegate some of its functions to the Darfur Regional DDR Commission, including collection of data and research.

30.8.6. Functions and Duties of the Darfur Regional DDR Commission:

- 30.8.6.1. To conduct a comprehensive assessment of needs and challenges related to DDR for conflict-affected persons in Darfur, including but not limited to, the reintegration of forces of the armed struggle movements in Darfur Track.
- 30.8.6.2. To exercise primary responsibility for designing, implementing, managing, and supervising DDR processes for the war-affected persons in Darfur, especially in relation to the armed struggle movements, in coordination with the National DDR Commission.
- 30.8.6.3. To develop and implement plans, with the help and advice of a UN third party and any other relevant organization(s), for the content, timing, and sequencing of DDR phases. The Darfur DDR Commission shall implement such plans after approval from the National DDR Commission, in accordance with this Agreement.
- 30.8.6.4. To receive manifests of unintegrated former combatants from the Joint High Military Committee for Security Arrangements;
- 30.8.6.5. To assist with planning and introducing a budget proposal for the - implementation of DDR processes within the agreed timeframe.

- 30.8.6.6.To urge national institutions to fund DDR processes;
 - 30.8.6.7.To address the status of those who are unfit for military services or who are unwilling to be reintegrated in accordance with the DDR programs in coordination with the National DDR Commission;
 - 30.8.6.8.To create sub-committees in the specific areas selected to implement DDR tasks;
 - 30.8.6.9.To supervise DDR processes in accordance with the timeline;
 - 30.8.6.10.The Darfur Regional DDR Commission shall operate under the full supervision of the National DDR Commission.
- 30.8.7.The Darfur Regional DDR Commission shall be composed of the following:
- 30.8.7.1.(5) representatives of the Government of Sudan;
 - 30.8.7.2.(5) representatives of the armed struggle movements signatory to this agreement;
 - 30.8.7.3.One representative of a UN third party;
 - 30.8.7.4.Stakeholders and donors.
- 30.8.8.The Parties shall appoint a commissioner for the Darfur Regional DDR Commission by consensus;
- 30.8.9.The Parties agree to ensure the participation of women in DDR decision-making processes, to effectively and appropriately meet the needs and interests of women, including the representation of women in the Darfur Regional DDR Commission.
- 30.8.10.The Commission may seek the help of national and foreign technical experts in accordance with the laws in effect in the country.
- 30.9.Disarmament and Demobilization Requirements and Processes.
- 30.9.1.DDR processes shall be conducted in the agreed areas, only with former combatants who have been verified by the Ceasefire Committee to be affiliated with the forces of the armed struggle movements/ Darfur Track, in accordance with the provisions of this agreement;
 - 30.9.2.DDR processes shall take place in the agreed Assembly areas.
 - 30.9.3.The armed struggle movements/ Darfur Track shall be responsible for administering former combatants in the Assembly areas, as well as their discipline and internal security;
 - 30.9.4.The Government of Sudan shall commit to providing the necessary non-military logistical support and assistance therefor. The Ceasefire Committee and a UN third party shall undertake the logistics for the disarmament and demobilization processes, including the establishment of Assembly areas.
- 30.10.Reintegration Requirements and Processes.
- 30.10.1.All former combatants of the signatory armed struggle movements, willing to return to civilian life, or those who do not meet the criteria to join security institutions shall be socially and economically reintegrated in the civilian community, as stipulated;

TITLE 3.

TWO AREAS TRACK AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT OF SUDAN AND SUDAN PEOPLE’S LIBERATION MOVEMENT – NORTH / THE REVOLUTIONARY FRONT

CHAPTER 1: AGREEMENT ON THE PROVISION OF HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE AND CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES FOR THE TWO AREAS

Preamble

The Transitional Government of Sudan and the Sudan People’s Liberation Movement–North / Sudan Revolutionary Front, referred to hereinafter as the Parties,

PURSUING the aspirations of the Sudanese people, and implementing the Juba Declaration for confidence building measures paving the way for negotiation and the Political Declaration between the Transitional Government of Sudan and the Sudan Revolutionary Front signed on 21 October 2019;

TAKING INTO CONSIDERATION that the humanitarian plight of the civilians, internally displaced persons (IDPs), and refugees is a priority, and that peace is one of the pillars for change and an important step towards political, economic, and social transformation;

INTENDING to alleviate the suffering of the Sudanese people who have suffered the catastrophic result of the wars that have deprived them of their resources and brought them nothing but death and destruction.

Hereby the two Parties agree on the following:

Objectives of the Agreement

1. This Agreement is considered to be a binding framework for the two Parties throughout all forthcoming political negotiations for the Two Areas, leading to a comprehensive peace agreement for Sudan.
2. This Agreement incorporates the cessation of hostilities, which will be developed subsequently into a permanent ceasefire in accordance with final security arrangements, which shall be agreed upon.

3. Providing for a path forward for achieving durable peace for the Two Areas in a manner that promotes and complements the efforts for the successful completion of a just, comprehensive, and durable peace for all of Sudan and a transition from the oppression of the Former Regime to a democratic new Sudan, based on citizenship without discrimination;
4. The cessation of hostilities provided for in this agreement aims at guaranteeing the unhindered access to humanitarian assistance, which shall be developed into a permanent ceasefire in accordance with final security arrangements.
5. Creating an environment conducive for the safe and voluntary return of internally displaced persons (IDPs) and refugees to their homes.
6. Alleviating the suffering of the people in the Two Areas through immediate humanitarian action to those who are in need, as well as through long-term political and social transformation.

Principles of Humanitarian Action

7. The Parties confirm that all humanitarian actions for the Two Areas shall be undertaken in accordance with the international humanitarian law and all applicable and relevant standards, and best practices, as well as all relevant international mechanisms.
8. The Parties confirm that all humanitarian action for the affected civilians in the Two Areas shall respect the dignity of beneficiaries, the guiding principles of UNGA Res. 46/182, and the humanitarian principles of humanity, impartiality, neutrality, and independence.
9. The Parties guarantee the free movement and safety of civilians to and from the areas controlled by each party.

Humanitarian Access

10. In accordance with the above principles, the Parties shall permit and facilitate the comprehensive provision of immediate, full, and unimpeded humanitarian access to all the conflict-affected areas and persons of the Two Areas, without discrimination.
11. The Parties commit to respecting and protecting humanitarian relief personnel and objects used for relief operations, and agree to refrain from attacking, harassing, intimidating, or detaining personnel, as well as to refrain from attacking, destroying, misappropriating, or looting relief supplies, installations, material, units, or vehicles operating in the humanitarian action.
12. Humanitarian access shall be guaranteed throughout the conflict-affected areas controlled by the SPLM/A-N/ SRF, without prejudice to national sovereignty, including through safe and unhindered multiple access corridors for all humanitarian personnel, supplies, and equipment.
13. Humanitarian access and delivery of aid shall be facilitated through both cross-line and cross-border corridors, where it is appropriate.
14. The precise formula for cross-line and cross-border aid delivery shall be decided by the tripartite Joint Humanitarian Committee (JHC).

15. The Parties shall seek protection and assistance from relevant third parties, the Republic of South Sudan, and international organizations or humanitarian organizations for the purpose of facilitating both cross-line and cross-border aid delivery and access.
16. Humanitarian access will be subject to the control of the Parties for their respective areas of control, but in no circumstance may humanitarian access be withheld or constrained unilaterally or for unjustified reasons.

Joint Humanitarian Committee (JHC)

17. Within a period of no later than seven (7) days of the signing of this Agreement, the Parties shall establish a Joint Humanitarian Committee (JHC), which shall be facilitated by the Mediator.
18. The Parties agreed upon a comprehensive mandate for the tripartite JHC, which must include the following competencies:

CHAPTER 2: FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT FOR THE TWO AREAS OF BLUE NILE AND SOUTH KORDOFAN / NUBA MOUNTAINS BETWEEN THE TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT OF SUDAN AND THE SUDAN PEOPLE'S LIBERATION MOVEMENT – NORTH / SUDAN REVOLUTIONARY FRONT (SRF)

Preamble

The Transitional Government of Sudan and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement–North/Sudan Revolutionary Front, referred to henceforth as “the Parties”,

INSPIRED BY the spirit of the glorious December 2018 Revolution and specially the ongoing transitional process in Sudan, particularly the continued efforts to achieve durable peace and comprehensive political transformation through a civilian-led transitional process, including the adoption of the Constitutional Declaration, the signing of the Juba Declaration (Annex 1) and the Political Declaration (Annex 2), and the commencement of negotiations for peace;

RECALLING the efforts exerted towards a democratic, inclusive nation-state for all Sudanese and the commitment to transitional governance provided for in the Constitutional Declaration;

DEEPLY CONSCIOUS of the immense suffering of the peoples of the Two Areas and of all of Sudan, and recognizing especially the great hardship inflicted on refugees, internally displaced persons (IDPs), women, children, the elderly, and all marginalized and conflict-affected communities;

NOTING WITH DEEP CONCERN the urgent need to undertake speedy plan of action to address the humanitarian crisis in Sudan in general and the Two Areas in particular and to provide for emergency relief operation to rescue the immediate situation and to provide for rehabilitation and recovery, protection, and voluntary return of IDPs and refugees;

CONFIRMING the urgent need for a just peace and comprehensive political settlement that enables us to address the root causes and consequences of the conflicts in the Two Areas, as part of a comprehensive process for all of Sudan;

RECOGNIZING the changes that have taken place in Sudan as a result of the glorious December 2018 Revolution and the critical role played by women and youth therein, who made achieving of peace one of the fundamental demands of the Sudanese people;

FULLY AWARE of the need to establish a new system of governance for Sudan and the Two Areas in particular, which requires the abolition of the old system and the mechanisms that empowered the former regime;

MINDFUL that Sudan's history has shown that peace cannot be achieved without democratization and that democratization cannot be achieved without peace;

RESOLVED to seize the present opportunity to link organically together a just peace, citizenship without discrimination and democracy by ending all the current wars in the Two Areas and all parts of Sudan in synchronization with a genuine democratic transformation based on the pillars of a just peace and citizenship without discrimination;

CONVINCED that Sudan’s internal conflicts are fundamentally political in nature and thus can only be resolved by addressing their underlying root causes, including in particular the issues of citizenship without discrimination, land ownership and use, economic and political divisions between the center and periphery of Sudan, and systematic social, economic, political, and cultural marginalization of certain groups and areas of Sudan;

REMEMBERING the historical plight and past injustices suffered by the people of the Two Areas, when it was part of the closed district system, as well as its later experience of two wars under successive national governments;

RECOGNIZING that peace in the Two Areas can only be achieved by fulfilling the aspirations of its people by guaranteeing positive discrimination and special security arrangements for the Two Areas within the framework of the security arrangements in Sudan;

MINDFUL of the reality that the Two Areas are rich in, and characterized by, cultural and religious diversity and that there is a need to respect and protect this diversity as an integral part of this Framework Agreement;

STRESSING that achieving a durable peace for the Two Areas is organically linked to building a robust foundation for transitional governance and democratic transformation in Sudan, which requires the achievement of a comprehensive, inclusive, and just peace for all Sudanese;

UNDERLINING the need to address the particularities of the Two Areas, especially in relation to the political and security arrangements, during the ongoing transitional period, which will lead to final arrangements for the Two Areas and a peaceful settlement to the conflict;

DETERMINED to establish and maintain a balanced relationship between the Two Areas and the national government that will provide the Two Areas with a decentralized system of governance guaranteeing the right of the people of the Two Areas to preserve their cultures, religions, identities, and diversity within the framework of a united Sudan;

RESOLVING to move forward a process for peace and political transformation for the Two Areas as part of a comprehensive transitional process to build a new national democratic system that is built upon citizenship without discrimination and unity in diversity in Sudan and guarantees the participation of all Sudanese regardless of their religion, ethnicity, culture, or gender.

Based on the above, the two Parties hereby commit to adhere to the provisions of this Agreement both in letter and in spirit.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Objectives of this Agreement

1. The objective of this Agreement is to serve as a binding framework to which the Parties shall adhere throughout all peace and political negotiations for the Two Areas as part of Sudan's during the transitional period, aiming to achieve a just, comprehensive and sustainable peace agreement and a permanent constitution for Sudan.
2. Realizing peace in the Two Areas in a way that consolidates and complements efforts to achieve a just, comprehensive and durable peace in all parts of Sudan and a transition from the oppression of the former regime to a new democratic Sudan.
3. Creating an environment conducive for the safe and voluntary return of refugees and internally displaced persons to their original homes in the Two Areas.
4. Alleviating the continued suffering of the people in the Two Areas through immediate humanitarian action, reconstruction and sustainable development, as well as through a process of long-term political, social, and cultural transformation.
5. The Parties shall have equal status and be equally bound by this Agreement, and the principles of equity and parity shall guide the interpretation and implementation of this Agreement in a way that achieves the goals of this agreement and the Final Peace Agreement.

- 9.4. Holding the National Constitutional Conference before the end of the transitional period, as provided for in the Constitutional Declaration.

10. Humanitarian Action

The Agreement on humanitarian assistance and a cessation of hostilities in the Two Areas of Blue Nile and South Kordofan / Nuba Mountains signed by the Transitional Government of the Republic of Sudan and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement – North / Sudan Revolutionary Front on 17 December 2019 (Annex 3) shall be considered an integral part of this Agreement.

SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS

General Principles for Security Arrangements

11. The Revolution and change that took place in Sudan is a great opportunity to build all the institutions of the Sudanese state, starting with the military and security sector, which is playing an important role in Sudan both now and will continue to do so in the future, and to achieve a democratic civilian system of governance. Building a new system will require creating and developing one professional national army that reflects the diversity of Sudan and the interests of all Sudanese and with a new military doctrine that is not subject to politicization from any party. The ultimate goal of the new final security arrangements in all negotiation tracks should be the building of one national professional army and a united military and security sector.
12. The restructuring and reform of the economic sector and the political system depends, to a large extent, on the building and modernization of the military and security sector.
13. Taking into consideration the collapse of the security sector in a number of countries in the region and beyond and its negative impact on regional and international security which require the speedy structuring, modernization and development of the security and military institutions in Sudan in accordance with the national will. It is important to have the support the regional and international community without prejudice to the sovereignty and security of Sudan in accordance with the Constitutional Declaration and the Final Peace Agreement.
14. The regular forces, the Sudan Armed Forces, the Rapid Support Forces, and the revolutionary forces in the armed struggle, contributed a lot to the change which happened in Sudan through the glorious December Revolution. The challenges facing Sudan and the need to complete the Sudanese Revolution require structuring, developing, reforming and modernizing the military and security sector in Sudan and the building of one professional national army that is capable of protecting the national interests of the country. This is one of the main goals of the final security arrangement in accordance with the Constitutional Declaration and the Final Peace Agreement.

15. The process of comprehensive security arrangements in the Two Areas and Sudan shall be implemented according to timetable and period agreed within the framework of building a single professional Sudanese army.
16. The Parties commit to continue negotiations to reach a detailed agreement about a permanent ceasefire and final security arrangements for the Sudan People's Liberation Army – North / Sudan Revolutionary Front, corresponding to all the provisions, texts and principles of this Framework Agreement and this will be part of the agreement on final security arrangements.
17. Implementation of the agreement on final security arrangements will include an Independent Commission for Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration (DDR). This will have branches in the Two Areas to carry out its tasks and include representatives of the Parties to the security arrangements.
18. When a permanent ceasefire and final security arrangements have been agreed and signed as part of the peace agreement, the Parties commit to engage with the armed groups which have not signed these agreements and encourage them to join the peace process in Sudan.
19. The Parties agree to make appropriate security arrangements for all forces of the Sudan People's Army- North / Sudan Revolutionary Front to be integrated inside the Two Areas according to the standard DDR procedures.
20. The Republic of Sudan will have a single national professional army that works according to the Constitutional Declaration, including the Final Peace Agreement to be signed by the two Parties.
21. A durable and final peace process requires comprehensive security arrangements in Sudan and the Two Areas for the sake of achieving peace, democracy and stability in Sudan.
22. The Parties will agree on detailed procedures for a permanent ceasefire and final security arrangements for the Two Areas, corresponding to all the provisions, texts and principles of this Agreement and in a way that complements the peace agreements covering the whole of Sudan and the process of ongoing political transition.
23. The security arrangements are organically linked to implementation of the political agreement.
24. The Parties will agree on a permanent ceasefire in the Two Areas covering the following:
 - 24.1. The Parties will seek to achieve a final settlement of the conflicts in the Two Areas as part of a settlement of all the conflicts in Sudan.
 - 24.2. The permanent ceasefire will include provisions on oversight and implementation.
25. The security arrangements in the Two Areas shall include the following:
 - 25.1. Detailed provisions regarding sequencing and deadlines for completing the security arrangements process.
 - 25.2. The Sudan People's Liberation Army- North / Sudan Revolutionary Front and its other security institutions should shall be integrated into a single national professional army and other regular forces, according to recognized professional standards and benefiting from previous experience.
 - 25.3. The Sudan Armed Forces should be loyal to the nation and not to any party, group, faction, entity or particular area and should be professional, national, independent and able to - protect Sudan against national security threats.

- 25.4. The armed forces should reflect the diversity of Sudan.
 - 25.5. The armed forces should be committed to the protection and provision of national security for the whole of Sudan in accordance with the Constitution.
 - 25.6. The armed forces and the security institutions should operate during the transitional period in accordance with the Constitutional Declaration and the Final Peace Agreement and they should be answerable and accountable before the law.
 - 25.7. The armed forces should uphold the standards of national and international law and should play a role in contributing to international and regional peace and security.
26. The Parties shall agree on integration and DDR arrangements for combatants from the Sudan People’s Liberation Army - North / Sudan Revolutionary Front and its other security institutions according to a program for DDR and an agreement on security arrangements including detailed provisions for sequencing and specified timelines for the completion of DDR in accordance with a timeframe to be agreed between the Parties.
 27. The Parties shall agree on the procedures required to support implementation of the objectives and provisions of the agreement on security arrangements.
 28. The Parties shall agree on the implementation of the agreed security arrangements under the supervision of a high committee and subsidiary joint committees to be agreed upon between the two Parties in the presence of the mediation led by the Republic of South Sudan.
 29. After achieving final peace and completing the processes for security arrangements (integration plus DDR processes), the Parties shall agree on completing the reorganization of the military and security institutions within a program of reform and structuring of state bodies in accordance with the Constitutional Declaration and the Final Peace Agreement.

CHAPTER 4: AGREEMENT ON THE FINAL SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS BETWEEN THE TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT OF SUDAN AND SUDAN PEOPLE’S LIBERATION MOVEMENT – NORTH / THE SUDAN REVOLUTIONARY FRONT

Preamble

The Transitional Government of Sudan, the Sudan People’s Liberation Movement and Army – North / the Revolutionary Front, hereinafter called The Parties;

Recalling the efforts exerted towards building and structuring a national democratic inclusive state, and the commitment to transitional governance as stipulated in the Constitutional Decree and to what will be provided for in the final peace agreement.

Based on our deep recognition of the dire need for final security arrangements that address the root causes of the war and build a rapid working plan to address the humanitarian crisis in Sudan in general and in the Two Areas in specific and provide necessary and urgent relief, rescue, rehabilitation, protection and voluntary resettlement of IDPs and refugees.

Reaffirming the necessity of reaching just peace and a comprehensive political agreement that enables us to address the issues and consequences of war in the Two Areas, as part of a comprehensive process for all of Sudan.

Acknowledging the changes that happened in Sudan as a result of the glorious revolution of December 2018 and the key role women and youth played in the revolution which fulfilled one of the key demands of the Sudanese people.

Mindful that the history of Sudan has proven that peace cannot be achieved without democratization and that democratization cannot be achieved without peace.

Determined to seize this opportunity to achieve just peace, citizenship without discrimination and democracy as one package through putting an end to all ongoing wars in the Two Areas and all over Sudan, in conjunction with genuine democratization based on the pillars of just peace and citizenship without discrimination.

Acknowledging that peace in the Two Areas can only be achieved through meeting the aspirations of their local people, ensuring positive discrimination, and reaching security arrangements for the Two Areas within the framework of the security arrangements for all of Sudan.

Commencing from the fact that the Two Areas are rich with religious and cultural diversity and the need to respect and protect this diversity.

Stressing that achieving durable peace in the Two Areas is organically linked with building solid foundations for transitional governance and democratization in Sudan, which require the achievement of comprehensive, inclusive and just peace for all Sudanese men and women.

Recognizing the importance of signing a final agreement for security arrangements and the need to urgently reach a peace agreement.

Committed to the final and just settlement, final peace, security, prosperity, democracy, citizenship without discrimination and the stability of the Sudanese people within the framework of justice and national reconciliation.

Affirming the importance of reaching an agreement on integration, disarmament, demobilization, and reintegration arrangements for the combatants of the Sudan People's Liberation Army – North / Revolutionary Front and its other security institutions in accordance with a DDR program and security arrangements agreement that include detailed provisions on the sequencings and specified timelines for integration and completion of DDR in accordance with the timetable agreed to by the Parties.

Recognizing that all other relevant international instruments, including the UN Charter on regional arrangements to address issues related to maintaining international peace and security are appropriate to regional work as well as the provisions of the African Union Charter, which guarantees the right to sovereignty and territorial integrity for all member states, are all important for the peace process.

The Transitional Government of Sudan and the Sudan People's Liberation Army – North / Revolutionary Front have hereby concluded this Agreement

PERMANENT CEASEFIRE ARRANGEMENTS

General Principles:

1. The Republic of Sudan shall have one national professional army and national professional security services that work in accordance with the Constitutional Charter, including the final peace agreement to be signed by the Parties. Accountability shall be undertaken in accordance with law that is consistent with the Constitution.
2. The revolution and change occurring in Sudan provides a great opportunity to build the Sudanese state and all of its institutions, and in particular the military and security sector which plays an important role in the present and future of Sudan. Achieving civil democratic governance and building a new system of governance requires building and developing a single national professional army that reflects the diversity of Sudan and the interests of all Sudanese male and female and with a new military doctrine, that is not politicized by any party. The final goal of the new security arrangements on all tracks shall be to reach a single national professional army and a unified military and security sector.
3. Restructuring and reforming the economic sector and the political system relies heavily on reforming and modernizing the security and military sector.
4. Comprehensive security arrangements in the Two Areas and in Sudan shall be undertaken in accordance with specific timeframes and schedules for implementation, agreed upon within the framework of a single professional Sudanese army.
5. The Parties agree that after achieving final peace and completing the security arrangements (integration and DDR), the military institution and security services shall be restructured as part of a plan to reform and restructure state institutions in accordance with the Constitutional Charter and the Final Peace Agreement.
6. The final and sustainable peace process requires comprehensive security arrangements in Sudan and in the Two Areas to achieve peace, democracy and stability in Sudan.
7. The Parties seek to achieve a final settlement for the conflict in the Two Areas as part of the settlement of all conflicts in Sudan.
8. The Sudanese Armed Forces and other security institutions shall owe allegiance to the homeland and not to any specific party, group, faction, region or area. The army and security institutions shall be national, professional, independent and capable of protecting Sudan against the threats to Sudanese national security and shall operate across Sudan.
9. The Armed Forces and other security services shall reflect diversity in Sudan.
10. The Armed Forces shall commit to protecting Sudan and providing national security in all of Sudan in accordance with the Constitution.
11. The Armed Forces shall abide by the standards of national and international laws and shall have a role in maintaining international and regional peace and security.

12. The Parties agree upon the procedures required to be undertaken to support the implementation of the objectives and provisions of the security arrangements agreement.
13. Sudanese women shall have a leading role in building and defending the homeland. The unified regular forces shall be reformed and restructured in accordance with the Constitutional Declaration and the final and comprehensive peace agreement. Therefore, women will have an important and effective role in reforming these forces, especially the technical units.
14. Security arrangements are closely linked to the implementation of the political agreement.

General and Fundamental Provisions

15. The Parties agree that peace is a main goal of the glorious December revolution and constitutes, first and foremost, a national issue that requires mobilizing the political will and public participation as indispensable prerequisites for achieving durable peace; and so the Parties must cooperate in upholding and respecting the permanent ceasefire and wisely contain and solve any problems that may arise.
16. The Parties shall, at all times, refrain from any action or actions that may harm the peace process and shall create an environment conducive to peace and tranquility.
17. The Parties agree that inclusiveness is the essence of this agreement and thereby to engage the armed groups, political forces, and civil society as part of the peace process that shall play a role therein and contribute to safeguarding this agreement.
18. It must be stressed that the permanent ceasefire agreement should be clear and unambiguous in all of its elements.

 - 29.5. Supplying non-combat materials, such as food, water, medicine, fuel, lubricating oils, stationary, clothing, and all administrative needs and movements.
 - 29.6. Training and qualification for the troops integrated into the armed forces and the regular security services.
 - 29.7. Humanitarian action, through facilitating the flow of relief and humanitarian assistance in accordance with the agreed regulations.
 - 29.8. Medical evacuation.
 - 29.9. Routine movements of the armed forces related to securing international borders and confronting national security threats.
30. Prohibited Acts:
- 30.1. Military activities, including military movements, reconnaissance, hostile reinforcements, recruitment, mandatory conscription, and military exercises, except those authorized by the Joint High Military Committee.
 - 30.2. Military operations on land, air, or rivers.
 - 30.3. Laying landmines or undertaking other acts of sabotage.

- 30.4. Use of force against and mistreatment of civilians.
 - 30.5. Hostile propaganda and psychological warfare, whether from within the country or from abroad.
 - 30.6. Occupation of new locations.
 - 30.7. Mandatory conscription or inclination towards unauthorized mobilization.
 - 30.8. Recruitment of child soldiers.
 - 30.9. Provocative and hostile actions that may lead to a confrontation.
 - 30.10. Violation of human rights, international humanitarian law, and obstruction of the freedom of movement.
 - 30.11. Espionage, sabotage, and vandalism with the aim of undermining either Party to the agreement.
 - 30.12. Polarization and counter-polarization between the Parties to this agreement.
 - 30.13. Any other acts that may delay the natural progress of the permanent ceasefire.
31. The Parties shall abide by all the permissible acts and refrain from prohibited acts set forth in the humanitarian agreement signed by the Parties.
 32. All the aforementioned permissible and prohibited acts shall be subject to the command and control mechanism as agreed upon by the Parties.
 33. Measures to be taken in the event of violations of the agreement: In the event of any breach of the provisions of this agreement, the Joint Military Ceasefire Committee and the Joint Military Committee of the area shall define the appropriate measures, which include the following:
 - 33.1. Investigation of violations.
 - 33.2. Identification of the parties involved in the violations.
 - 33.3. Exposing the perpetrator, naming and shaming the perpetrator, or recommending harsh penalties be imposed upon the perpetrator in the event that they were involved in serious violations.
 - 33.4. Recommending that the individual or parties involved be referred to a civil, criminal or military trial, as appropriate.
 - 33.5. The Parties agree to follow up on recommendations for disciplinary measures, based on the proposal of the Area's Joint Military Committee.
 34. The Parties agree that the phases of the final security arrangements shall include the following:
 - 34.1. Continuation of the cessation of hostilities for humanitarian purposes, in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement on the Provision of Humanitarian Assistance and Cessation of Hostilities in the Blue Nile and southern Kordofan/ Nuba Mountains signed in Juba on 21 October 2019.
 - 34.2. Implementation of the permanent ceasefire program.
 - 34.3. Implementation of the integration program in military and security institutions.
 - 34.4. Implementation of DDR programs.
 - 34.5. Implementation of the structuring plan which refers to the reform, development, and modernization; and the new military doctrine for the military and security institutions which shall be professional, unified, non-politicized, and reflective of the diversity of Sudan.

35. Cessation of Hostilities Phase:

35.1. The Parties shall abide by all the provisions of the Agreement on the Cessation of Hostilities for Humanitarian Purposes as a necessary step for confidence-building. The Parties reaffirm commitment to pursue a peaceful solution for conflicts in Sudan in general and in the Two Areas in particular. The permanent ceasefire agreement and the mechanisms therein shall replace and be considered as an extension of the Agreement on Cessation of Hostilities for Humanitarian Purposes.

36. The Parties shall continue to monitor the cessation of hostilities through the Joint Committee to ensure that both parties control their forces and comply with the cessation of hostilities agreement signed by the Parties, in the presence of a third party for monitoring and verification.

37. Each party shall continue to cease all military and media hostilities targeting the other party.

38. Humanitarian access during the permanent ceasefire:

38.1. The Parties shall commit to complying with the Humanitarian Assistance Agreement signed by the Transitional Government and the SPLM-N/SRF in Juba on 21 October, 2019.

38.2. The Parties shall commit to ensuring the continuation of safe, immediate and unhindered humanitarian access and the non-obstruction of the flow of humanitarian assistance from within Sudan or across the border for the affected populations.

38.3. The Parties shall commit to ensuring the safety and protection of humanitarian workers, equipment, and property.

38.4. The Parties shall commit to protecting and securing humanitarian assistance from looting, theft, and corruption.

38.5. The Parties shall abide by comprehensive measures that regulate the movement and protection of humanitarian assistance convoys in the Two Areas.

38.6. The Parties shall abide by the principles and spirit of international humanitarian law while enforcing the permanent ceasefire.

39. Preparatory Phase of the Ceasefire:

39.1. The permanent ceasefire shall begin immediately upon signing the final peace agreement and shall replace the Cessation of Hostilities Agreement in force.

39.2. The Parties, upon declaring the permanent ceasefire and entry into force thereof, shall commit to immediately embark on defining the assembly areas for the SPLA-N/SRF forces through the Joint High Military Ceasefire Committee in areas to be agreed upon by the Parties.

40. The Parties agree that once the war is completely over in the Two Areas, the armed forces, through the mechanisms of the security arrangements and the permanent ceasefire, shall be deployed so as to support civil activities as well as the freedom of movement of civilians and going about their lives normally.

41. The Parties agree to evacuate all civil institutions.

42. The criteria for the assembly areas during the integration phase shall include the following:

DISARMAMENT, DEMOBILIZATION AND REINTEGRATION (DDR)

61. The DDR process shall be built on the Parties recognition of the following:

- 61.1. The goal of DDR is to contribute to creating a safe environment, supporting social stability throughout the country in the post-final peace agreement period, especially the war-affected areas.
- 61.2. The DDR process is complex, with political, military, security, humanitarian, social, and economic dimensions. The DDR process aims to address post-conflict security problems which may arise as the result of leaving former combatants without livelihoods or support networks, other than their former comrades in arms, during the transition from conflict to peace, and then to development.
- 61.3. The DDR program shall be implemented within a comprehensive nationwide process of reconciliation and healing, as part of the peacebuilding and confidence-building measures.

62. General Principles and Guidelines:

- 62.1. Disarmament is the collection, documentation, control, and disposal of small arms, ammunition, explosives, and light and heavy weapons from combatants. They are often collected from civilians as well. Disarmament also includes responsible program development and management of weapons.
- 62.2. Demobilization is the official discharge of fighters from armed groups. The first stage of demobilization may extend from the demobilization of individual combatants in temporary posts to the demobilization of large numbers. The second stage includes providing a support package to demobilized individuals, which is referred to as social reintegration and housing.
- 62.3. Social reintegration is the process through which former combatants obtain the status of a civilian citizen and practice a profession to help them generate a stable income. Reintegration is necessarily a social and economic process with a specific timeframe. It mainly takes place in communities at the local level and it is part of the general development of the country. It is a national responsibility and it usually requires external assistance in the long-run.
- 62.4. The Parties shall promote and strengthen institutions working on issues related to the families of martyrs and the wounded, provided that it includes martyrs and the wounded from both Parties.

63. Joint DDR Committee:

- 63.1. The Parties shall establish two DDR committees in the Two Areas to undertake the following tasks:
 - 63.1.1. Plan and implement the DDR process within the agreed timeframe.
 - 63.1.2. Create national institutions to lead the DDR process.
 - 63.1.3. Address the status of those who are unfit for military services or who are unwilling to be reintegrated in accordance with the DDR programs in coordination with the National DDR Commission.
 - 63.1.4. Establish sub-committees in the specific areas to be selected to implement the DDR tasks.
- 63.2. Composition: the two committees shall work under the complete supervision of the National DDR Commission while ensuring effective participation of the Parties to the agreement in a way that leads to the implementation of their tasks. The two committees shall be composed of the following:

63.2.1. Six (6) representatives of the Government of Sudan.

63.2.2. Six (6) representatives of SPLM-N/SRF.

63.2.3. Other components, partners, and donors in accordance with the Juba Declaration.

63.2.4. A third-party representative.

INTEGRATION

64. Due to the prolonged civil wars and the policies of the defunct regime that have deformed the military-security system, the Glorious December Revolution constitutes a unique opportunity for reforming, developing and modernizing the military establishment and other security services; building a professional national security and military system with a monopoly on the use of weapons to defend higher national interests, in a democratic civil regime, in accordance with the Constitutional Declaration and the peace agreement.
65. Constructing the Sudanese Armed Forces as a national professional non-politicized army, with a new military doctrine that reflects the diversity of Sudan and protects the higher national interests of the country.
66. The ultimate purpose of the integration process is for the Sudanese Armed Forces, with its new military doctrine that protect citizens, the homeland and the constitution, to be the only professional national army; and to integrate all other forces present on Sudanese territory in a unified professional national army.
67. Upon the signing of this agreement, and based on the nationwide ceasefire agreement and the command and control mechanisms provided for in this agreement, the units that will be integrated shall be an integral part of the Sudanese armed forces command, in accordance with the integration agreement and schedules thereto.
68. Security Arrangements and Phases:
- 68.1. Security arrangements shall be conducted in three phases that shall be strictly implemented in accordance with the timetables established in the implementation matrix. Phase one shall have a duration of (12) twelve months, to be followed by phase two with a duration of (14) fourteen months, and then a third and final phase with a duration of (14) fourteen months.
- 68.2. Phase One: the integration period shall be for a (12) twelve month period, beginning immediately upon signing the final peace agreement with joint arrangements between the Parties and the entry of the SPLA-N/SRF forces to the assembly and organization areas, as specified in the permanent ceasefire agreement for the regular forces, especially the Sudanese Armed Forces. Their function as a military wing for the SPLM-N/SRF shall come to an end, and they shall be fully professionalized forces affiliated with the regular forces and armed forces as an integral part thereof. They shall be subject to the laws and traditions of those institutions within the context of the reform, development, and modernization of the military institution and security services, as well as the professionalization of the armed forces with a new military doctrine that reflects the diversity of Sudan in accordance with the provisions of the security arrangements agreement of the final peace agreement between the Government of Sudan and SPLM-N/SRF.
69. Phase Two: SPLA-N/SRF forces shall work in battalions within their areas, in accordance with the deployment plan of the Sudanese Armed Forces in the relevant sector during the (14) fourteen months after integration, in accordance with the timetable and the security arrangements agreement.
70. Phase Three: SPLA-N/SRF forces shall work in companies, in accordance with the nationwide deployment plan of the Sudanese Armed Forces during the (14) fourteen months after the end of Phase Two, pursuant to the timetable and the security arrangements agreement.

71. At the end of the final security arrangements phases, the integrated forces at the individual level shall be an integral part of the Sudanese Armed Forces.
72. SPLA-N/SRF forces shall be subject to the administrative and financial regulations of the Sudanese Armed Forces upon the start of Phase One of the security arrangements.
73. The processes of reform, development, and modernization in accordance with the new military doctrine shall be a continuous process for building a national professional army.
74. The assembly and quartering areas for combatants shall be under the supervision of the Joint High Military Committee for Security Arrangements and other relevant mechanisms within the assembly and quartering areas, in accordance with the schedule agreed upon by the Parties as follows:
75. Assembly, quartering, and subsistence of the those designated during the integration process.
76. Listing and classification of those who are fit for military service according to the principles and standards of the armed forces and security services in separate manifests in preparation for the completion of integration procedures.
77. SPLA-N/SRF shall submit lists with the names of its combatants to the Joint Military Ceasefire Committee immediately upon the entrance of forces into the assembly areas.
78. The Parties shall submit reports within seven days from the date of signing the final peace agreement.
79. The subsequent arrangements, especially the integration and reintegration processes, shall be made according to the lists of names provided by the SPLA-N/SRF after verification.
80. Collecting arms and ammunition from combatants and storing them shall be conducted under the supervision of a third party.
81. Individuals fit for military service, according to the requisite bases and standards, shall be moved to the training centers of the armed forces and other regular institutions, in accordance with the agreed timetables.
82. Children, the elderly, and the disabled shall be listed and classified and their statuses shall be adjusted in rehabilitation camps within the agreed timeframe.
83. Based on the results of listing and classification of individuals fit for military service and other regular [security] services, the following shall be undertaken:
 - 83.1. Identification of the number of battalions and units that can be created from the forces of SPLA-N/SRF in the Two Areas in accordance with the regulations of infantry battalions and the formations of other regular forces for the purposes of inventory and categorization.
 - 83.2. Identification of the number and ranks of commissioned and non-commissioned officers and soldiers, and upon which they shall be integrated in the formations and units of the Sudanese Armed Forces and other regular forces according to the agreed criteria.

- 83.3. Military training shall take place in training centers of the armed forces and other regular forces to be designated by the Parties for a specified period, but for not less than four months pursuant to the timelines to be agreed upon.
- 83.4. After completing the basic military training, graduates shall be integrated into the formations and units of the Sudanese Armed Forces and other regular forces according to the bases, criteria, and proportions of the total numbers of those formations and units, as well as the national budget of the state.
- 83.5. All the procedures of assembly, quartering, listing, classification, training, and integration of combatants shall be implemented in accordance with the specified timetable.
84. There shall be SPLA-N/SRF Assembly Areas both within and outside of the Two Areas, in locations to be agreed upon by the Parties within the Joint High Military Committee for Security Arrangements.
85. The number of former combatant men and women who will be integrated into the Sudanese Armed Forces and security forces shall be specified subject to the following criteria, taking into consideration positive discrimination:
- 85.1. Sudanese nationality;
- 85.2. No less than 18 years of age;
- 85.3. Medical and physical fitness;

100.2. Implementation: This agreement shall be implemented in accordance with the implementation matrix.

TITLE 4.

EASTERN SUDAN TRACK AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT OF SUDAN AND THE SUDAN REVOLUTIONARY FRONT

Preamble

The Transitional Government of the Republic of Sudan and the Sudan Revolutionary Front (Eastern Sudan Track), hereinafter “the Parties”;

Seeking to realize comprehensive, just, and durable peace and maintain Sudan’s unity, territorial integrity and sovereignty;

Reiterating their desire to reach a lasting solution for issues related to Eastern Sudan for the realization of the slogans of the revolution (freedom, peace and justice);

Pursuing inclusive, just and sustainable development nationwide;

Reaffirming their commitment to the agreements signed between the Transitional Government of Sudan and the Revolutionary Front, namely the Juba Declaration of Confidence Building Procedures and the Preparation for Negotiation signed on 11 September 2019 and the Political Declaration signed on 21 October 2019;

Convinced of the urgent need to establish comprehensive peace in Sudan addressing the root causes of crisis and conflict in Sudan;

Wishing to end the state of war, political and social tension and their implications and causes;

Acknowledging that the crisis in Eastern Sudan is caused by political, economic, social and cultural marginalization;

The Parties agreed to the following:

CHAPTER ONE THE POLITICAL ISSUE

General Principles

First: Sudan is a sovereign, democratic, parliamentary, pluralistic and decentralized state where rights and duties are based on citizenship without discrimination on grounds of race, faith, culture, sex, color, gender, social or economic status, political opinion, disability, regional affiliation or any other reason.

Second: In order to eliminate political marginalization in Eastern Sudan, the Parties agree to the following principles:

1. Adopting a decentralized, federal, pluralistic and democratic system of governance which ensures delegation of powers and resource allocation and which comprises three levels of governance (federal –state-level/Regional – local).

Juba Declaration for Trust-Building Measures and Pre-Negotiation Principles

APPRECIATING the kinship, love and joint history and destiny between the peoples of Republics of Sudan and South Sudan;

RESPONDING to the gracious invitation by General Salva Kiir Mayardit, President of the Republic of South Sudan, to the two parties of the Agreement;

RECOGNIZING that the peace issue is a strategic one; and ending the war, strengthening internal unity and reformation of foreign relations will reflect positively on the lives of millions of IDPs and refugees and will contribute to solving the economic crisis and alleviate suffering off the shoulders of our people; and transition to democracy will never be achieved without peace as shown by the experiences of our people throughout previous transitional periods;

REITERATING the desire of two parties to avoid mishaps of past peace negotiations which failed to achieve the aspirations of our people in sustainable and equitable peace; and in an endeavor to invest in the new political will made available by the December 2018 Revolution through which our people have expressed real will to have peace, freedom and justice to achieve urgent, equitable and comprehensive peace;

INSPIRED by the values of the Revolution in which all segments of the Sudanese people have contributed by different forms of resistance; as a matter of fact, both parties of the Agreement are partners in achieving this change. Their partnership will transform into productive partnership to achieve peace and build a new society for all Sudanese people;

COMMITTING to the importance of preparing the environment and building trust between the two Parties to the Agreement and pushing the peace process, the Government of the Sudan will immediately implement trust building procedures and dividends of peace stipulated in the Constitutional Document.

Thus in the meeting held during the period 9-11 September 2019 between the delegation of the Government of Sudan and the delegation of the Revolutionary Front (comprising JEM, SPLM-N, SLM/A, SLM/A-Transitional Council, Beja Opposition Congress, United Popular Front for Liberation and Justice, Kush Liberation Movement, United Democratic Party - Revolutionary Front and the Sudan Liberation Forces Alliance have agreed upon the following:

- A- Immediate implementation of trust building measures stipulated in paragraph 67 (items e, f, h, i) in chapter 15 of the 2019 Constitutional Charter for the Transitional Period while instituting in place appropriate implementation mechanisms.
- B- Formation of joint committees to implement the following tasks:
 - 1- A committee to follow up on releasing all prisoners of war and those convicted (unless convicted for a private right dispute)
 - 2- A committee to follow up procedures for the cessation of hostilities and humanitarian issues while adopting monitoring mechanisms.
 - 3- A committee to set up arrangements for peace negotiations and preparations thereof and coordination of negotiation tracks through appropriate mechanisms.
- C- The Government delegation has agreed to implement the following:
 - 1- Annulment of lists of those barred from travel for reasons pertinent to war.
 - 2- Review of decisions issued in relation to dam lands and decision No. 206 on lands granted to investors in the Northern State.
 - 3- Delaying formation of the Legislative Council pending achievement of a peace agreement.
 - 4- With regards to amendment of Article 70 of the Constitutional Charter and participation at all levels of the transitional authority after concluding a peace agreement, the Government delegation has committed itself to respond to this issue in the next meeting.
- D- It has been agreed that parties to negotiate with the Government of the Sudan are:
 - 1- The Revolutionary Front and the Sudan Liberation Forces Alliance.
 - 2- SPLM-N led by Lieutenant General Abdelaziz Al-Hilu.
 - 3- SLM led by Abdul Wahid Mohamed al-Nur.
 - 4- Any other parties as agreed by the Government of the Sudan and the above main parties.

The parties agree that there will be tracks to address peculiarities of war-affected areas in Darfur, the Two Areas, East, and North Sudan.

The parties agree that negotiations shall commence on 14 October 2019 and signature shall be on or before 14 December 2019.

The parties agree to form a committee to arrange for the peace talks. The committee shall start its work immediately upon signature of this agreement to ensure that talks begin on 14 October 2019.

This agreement includes procedures for trust-building and procedural issues for the commencement of the negotiations. It will be presented by parties and the Government of South Sudan to the African Union Peace and Security Council to issue a new mandate for the Sudanese Peace Talks and other issues stipulated in this agreement. The Parties will ask the African Union to seek endorsement of international institutions, including the UN Security Council.

The Parties agreed that regional parties, including the AU, IGAD, Chad and Arab countries, including Egypt, Saudi Arabia, UAE, Qatar, Kuwait and all Gulf countries and the international community, including USA, UK, Norway, EU, France, Germany, Canada, Russia, China and the UN must be engaged in all stages of peace making and peace building;

FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT OF SUDAN
AND THE DARFUR TRACK

Preamble

We, the Government of the Republic of Sudan, the Darfur Track (the Sudanese Justice and Equality Movement, the Sudan Liberation Movement, the Sudan Liberation Movement - the Transitional Council, and the Sudan Liberation Forces Alliance);

Perceiving the long and continuous suffering of the citizens of Darfur and affirming the importance of reaching a comprehensive peace agreement that puts a rational end to the war in Sudan and achieves sustainable peace and security for the people of Sudan;

Recognizing that the failure to manage diversity and the deliberate marginalization in Sudan has ignited wars and conflicts throughout the country, which have led to grave violations of international humanitarian law and human rights.

Believing that the armed struggle revolutions and the glorious December revolution, which the Sudanese youth paid for with heavy sacrifices and dear blood, have created a historic opportunity to address the root causes of the Sudanese crisis;

Realizing that we are on the cusp of a new phase that provides a great opportunity to achieve freedom, peace, justice, democracy and a state of equal citizenship;

Affirming the commitment of the Parties to the Juba Declaration signed on 11 September 2019 and renewed on 14 December 2019, have agreed on the following:

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

1. Affirming that negotiations on the Darfur Track are between the Transitional Government of Sudan and the Darfur Track (the Sudanese Justice and Equality Movement, the Sudan Liberation Movement, the Sudan Liberation Movement -Transitional Council, and the Sudan Liberation Forces Alliance) for confidence-building measures and negotiation preparations.
2. Stopping the war in all parts of the country and achieving a just, comprehensive, and lasting peace as a top priority to achieve the comprehensive national revival project;
3. Addressing the roots of the crisis in Sudan in a way that redresses historical grievances, restores rights, and achieves justice, peace and stability in the country;
4. Ensuring the participation of displaced persons, refugees, civil society, and civil administrations in establishing peace and the social contract;
5. Permitting regional and international humanitarian organizations to return to Darfur to provide humanitarian assistance to displaced persons, refugees and those in need and repeal laws restricting their work.

6. Addressing the effects of war and making reparations for those affected through fair and rewarding individual and collective compensation.
7. Restructuring the Sudanese state by reforming its institutions during the transitional period in a manner that reflects its independence and nationalism and ensuring a fair distribution of opportunities within them without prejudice to the criteria of eligibility and competence;
8. Acknowledging the principle of balanced and sustainable development and positive discrimination to address the effects of war and bridge the development gap between Sudan's regions.
9. The division of power and wealth, vertically and horizontally, based on fair principles and standards in accordance with population density and resource allocation criteria, taking into account positive discrimination in war-affected areas;
10. Ensuring respect for human rights in accordance with international covenants, laws, and treaties;
11. Equality between the sexes in rights and duties and the lifting of historical grievances against Sudanese women, especially women in conflict areas, with positive discrimination and their inclusion in all stages of peace;
12. The Parties (the government and the armed struggle movements - Darfur Track) shall commit to promoting democracy, the rule of law, principles of good governance, protection of human rights, respect for ethnic, cultural, religious, and linguistic pluralism, and equality between women and men at all levels of administrative government;
13. Emphasizing that the building of the permanent constitution of Sudan shall take place through a transparent, inclusive, and participatory process from which no one is excluded, beginning with the Constitutional Conference that shall be held in partnership with all the people of Sudan from the administrative levels in rural councils to the localities and states and up to the federal level;
14. Promoting and protecting democracy; and the signatory movements to this Agreement shall have the right to engage in political activities in accordance with what is stipulated in the peace agreement;
15. The administration of the National Capital shall reflect the people of Sudan and their diversity;
16. Adopting the principle of justice, accountability, and non-impunity, allowing the Sudanese judiciary to play its role, and handing over wanted persons to international justice;
17. Adhering to the principle of transparency and accountability, combating corruption in all its forms, enacting laws, and establishing the necessary mechanisms for that;

18. The release of all prisoners of war, detainees, and those sentenced due to the war in Darfur, the earnest pursuit to find out the fate of those missing, and the issuance of a general amnesty for all members of the armed struggle movements;
19. Agree on effective security arrangements that guarantee the implementation of the peace agreement and the rights of the forces of the signatory movements to the agreement to ensure the non-resurgence of a state of war;
20. Incorporate the peace agreement in the Constitutional Charter of the Republic of Sudan.

NEGOTIATION ISSUES

21. The Parties agree to discuss the following total national issues:
 - 1) Identity;
 - 2) Public freedoms and human rights;
 - 3) The issue of exploiting religion in the state's institutions;

JOINT DECLARATION TO RENEW THE CESSATION OF HOSTILITIES BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF SUDAN
AND THE SUDAN REVOLUTIONARY FRONT

Between the Government of the Republic of Sudan and the Sudanese Justice and Equality Movement, the Sudan People's Liberation Movement – North, Sudan Liberation Forces Alliance, Sudan Liberation Movement – Transitional Council, Sudan Liberation Movement.

Acknowledging that achieving comprehensive and sustainable peace is a critical issue and fundamental requirement and one of the priorities of the transitional period.

Affirming the importance of achieving peace and democratic transition in Sudan through a comprehensive and true political process as stipulated in the Juba Declaration signed on 11 September 2019.

Reiterating our commitment to the necessity of ending armed conflict in Sudan through real negotiations and peaceful means to find permanent and final solutions that can contribute to the security, stability, peace, democracy, and prosperity of Sudan.

Reiterating our desire to reinforce peace in all of Sudan through renewing the cessation of hostilities that impede the peace process.

Recognizing that a comprehensive and just peaceful solution in Sudan is an ultimate priority that cannot be achieved without a just peace that ends wars and addresses the roots and consequences of the crisis while speaking to the particularities of the areas most affected by wars and marginalized groups.

Affirming that the complete release of prisoners of war is fundamental to trust-building measures.

Recognizing that the cessation of hostilities will lead to improving the humanitarian situation and will contribute to reinforcing trust and affirming the commitment of the Parties to the peace process leading to the commencement of peace negotiations and final security arrangements as part of the process of political transition in Sudan.

We, the Government of the Republic of Sudan, the Sudan Liberation Movement, the Sudan People's Liberation Movement – North, Sudan Liberation Forces Alliance, Sudanese Justice and Equality Movement, and Sudan Liberation Movement – Transitional Council declare the immediate cessation of hostilities.

The Parties will negotiate at a later time on the mechanisms for monitoring, control, facilitation of internal and external humanitarian access with agreement from the Darfur and Two Areas Parties in each of the Area controlled by the respective parties, taking into consideration the particularities of each track.
